From another Waveland businessman

County offered 20-acre donation for new hospital

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
Another Waveland businessman is offering to donate Hancock County land, this time for construction of a new county hospital.

Millford Lady, owner of Waveland Resort Inn at the intersection of US-90 and Hwy. 603, is proposing donation of 20 acres located west of his motel.

In return, he's asking the city and county to construct roads and install the appropriate utilities which could serve his remaining adjacent land he plans to develop commercially.

The name of the proposed commercial subdivision is Hancock Civic Park Plaza.

The Hancock Board of Supervisors in a split vote Monday rejected a recommendation by the Hancock General Hospital Board of Trustees to purchase land at the intersection of Nicholson Avenue and Old Spanish Trail in Waveland following objections to that site by Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis.

The present hospital is located on Dunbar Avenue in Bay St. Louis.

Businessman John Auderer is offering to give property near the new Waveland water tower on US-90 to the county and its two cities in a proposal similar to Lady's, but this land would be for buildings to house all local government offices.

The top leaders of the three entities plan to discuss Auderer's offer in a meeting Wednesday.

Regarding Lady's proposal, several county officials, Waveland Aldermen Louis Smolensky and Mollere Realty representatives met Wednesday at a luncheon at the motel's restaurant to discuss the offer.

Dick Ashman of Mollere Realty presented the proposal which he drafted.

When asked what the elevation of the offered property is, Ashman answered that the nearby motel is 18 feet above sea level and the property slopes downward, but drains well into Jourdan River to the north.

National Flood Insurance Program rate maps indicate land elevations of about 10 feet in the area of the property offered.

Perry Gibson, a trustee, recommended the hospital and supervisor boards conduct a joint meeting to discuss the proposal.

But no meeting time was discussed and none of the officials would definitely say if the meeting would be open to the public.

However, Brother Martin Hernandez, a trustee, said a closed meeting was necessary to discuss details of the offer.

A.A. (Dolph) Kellar, District One supervisor and board president, said soil tests were needed to determine if the site is suitable for a large hospital structure.

Hernandez asked if Lady could extend his 90-day time limitation on the offer to one year.

Lady replied he could not because of other possible development plans.

However, Ashman later said the offer period could be extended to six months. Lady's written proposal also states the hospital's construction must begin within one year.

Gibson and Bert Courrage, District One supervisor, both urged the group to seriously consider the proposal.

Leslie Page, president of the Garden Island Community Association, urged the officials to accept the offer because a hospital in that location would better serve that community, Diamondhead and Shoreline Park.

Lady's written proposal states, "This donation of the 20 acre site is done with the intent to decrease the overall cost for the hospital project and provide the citizens of Hancock County with a centrally located hospital facility."

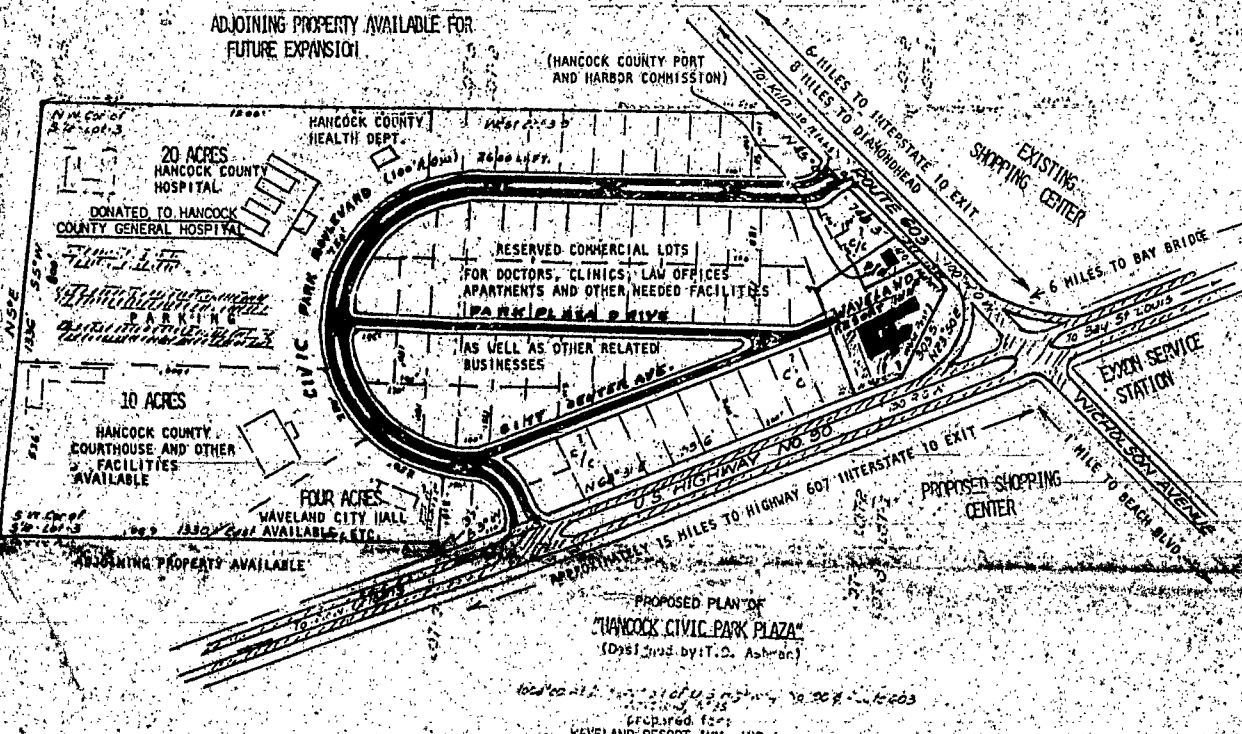

Smolensky labeled the offer as a 'fantastic idea' and pledged the proposal would be discussed at the next Waveland Board of Aldermen meeting.

Ashman said 'a few' Bay St. Louis officials were invited to the Wednesday meeting, but none attended.

The proposal also reports that adjacent property is 'available' for a Waveland city hall and a county courthouse.

Heitzman withdraws, Metzler announces

By JUNE M. HEYDT
Stating, "My full intent is to serve the unexpired term to which I was elected," Jerry Heitzman withdrew his candidacy for re-election to the position of circuit clerk in the General Election in November.

Heitzman took the position in January after winning a special election to fill the unexpired term of former clerk Henry Otis, who resigned after pleading guilty to failure to perform the duties of office by not keeping proper records.

Heitzman, 36, qualified in the Democratic Primary and was unopposed.

Saying it is with sincere regret that he is withdrawing his candidacy, Heitzman told Joseph Benvenuti, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, in a letter, "desire to enter the private sector for career purposes."

Heitzman noted in the letter that he has applied for and accepted a position with a local business beginning in January.

In Heitzman's announcement for re-election he stated that during the five months he was in office he felt he brought many changes to the office of the circuit clerk. These included, he said, a streamlined filing system, staff fully trained to perform all duties of the clerk's office and a modern accounting system.

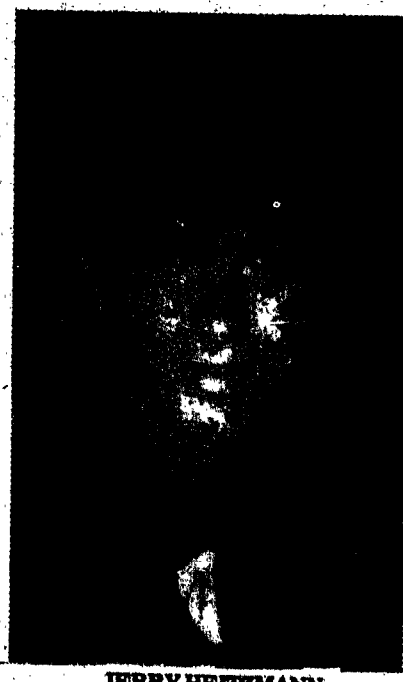

In his letter to Benvenuti, Heitzman said, "I would like to thank the citizens of Hancock County for the help, support, and encouragement given me during my term in office. If I can ever be of any assistance to the wonderful people of this community, I hope that they will feel free to contact me anytime."

With Heitzman's withdrawal, Pamela Thomas Metzler, chief deputy in the circuit clerk's office, has announced that she will run for the position of circuit clerk.

Metzler took the job as chief deputy when Heitzman took office in January. Prior to that she worked for seven years in the chancery clerk's office.

Metzler also presently works as clerk for Justice Court Judge John Chevis.

Hancock United Way friends gather for kickoff

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
This morning scores of Hancock County United Way friends including volunteers, recipient agency heads and local dignitaries will gather at a Bay St. Louis restaurant for the 1983 fund raising campaign kickoff breakfast.

The organization's fund raising goal this year is $45,000.

Hilda Bourg of Diamondhead, the 1983 campaign chairperson, says at the breakfast she will outline fund raising plans which will include two primary objectives.

"We will emphasize that a lot of people who live in Hancock and work outside the county can and should designate their United Way payroll deductions or contributions to our local fund," she reveals as one objective.

Bourg cites as an example that two percent of the employees at the E.I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., Inc. Delaware Plant are Hancock residents, but the local United Way does not receive any donations from those workers.

Regarding the second objective, Bourg reports, "We are going to ask local businesses and industries to participate in the campaign with corporate donations and payroll deductions."

Bourg says the 1983 United Way volunteers will be available to meet with local business and industry managers to discuss the fund raising campaign and to help them understand the importance of contributing to the United Way.

treat buffet this morning. The film is titled 'Good Friends.'

She explains the film was borrowed from the Harrison County United Way and produced as an internal promotional tool targeted toward UW volunteers.

The breakfast program will also include a welcome address, film introduction and adjournment by Harvill; an invocation by Rev. Charles Clark of First Assembly of God Church in Waveland; an introduction of United Way officers and board members by UW Executive Director Conrad Mautray of Bay St. Louis; and comments by Bourg and UW President Norton Hanes Sr. of Bay St. Louis.

Bourg notes the Hancock United Way recently added the Young Men's Christian Association as the 18th recipient agency.

She also cites because most United Way workers are volunteers, about eight percent of funds collected are utilized for administrative and campaign expenses.

Goodwill plans grand opening

Goodwill Industries in Bay St. Louis is opening its retail store in a new location with ribbon cutting ceremonies at 9 a.m. today.

The new store, which will be open regularly Monday through Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., is located in the Bay St. Louis (A&P) Mall at the corner of US-90 and Dunbar Avenue.

Angie Morris of Bay St. Louis, Goodwill's local manager, and Leroy Modersbach of Gulfport, Goodwill regional manager, said the store will feature a variety of merchandise at bargain prices. They will be offering an extraordinary sale on clothing, housewares, and other household items.

Election commissioners discuss legality of Democratic Primary

By JUNE M. HEYDT
John V. Ladner, District Three election commissioner, questioned the integrity of the Democratic Executive Committee's special meeting of the election commission called at Ladner's request Tuesday evening.

Ladner expressed his concern by saying he was very concerned about the party's integrity and the legitimacy of the election commission.

Ladner said the election commission should be a neutral body and not be involved in the political process.

democrats can run as independents, and Ladner.

Ladner addressed Jerry Heitzman, circuit clerk, asking him, "Are you knowledgeable about a meeting conducted by the Democratic Executive Committee to certify candidates before the primary? Who were the poll workers and was a representative person from District Three present?"

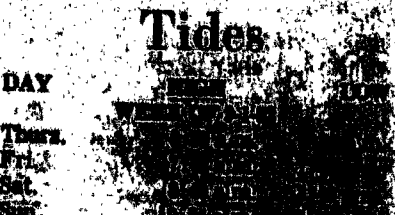

Heitzman answered that he had not been in the files of the election commission meeting and that the executive committee members were not certified as poll workers.

they were not elected according to statute."

Frank Lee, election commissioner and also member of the Democratic executive committee, said, "If I were to vote for something like this I would be denying what I believe."

Lee continued, "I think the election was held fairly and honestly without anything to suggest that it was rigged and well-administered to get people to vote."

Ladner said he had called the election commission members and they were not certified as poll workers.

Los Angeles detective says:

Self-defense ruled in Bay native's death

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Murder charges against a Los Angeles, Calif. woman filed in connection with the stabbing death of a Bay St. Louis native have been dropped, a Los Angeles Police Department spokesman reports.

Detective William Adrian of the LAPD Central Division, said Wednesday that the Los Angeles District Attorney's office recently determined an unidentified woman acted in self-defense when she stabbed Martin T. Collins at about 11:30 p.m., Aug. 22.

As a result, murder charges filed against the woman were rejected by the DA's office and she was released, Adrian reported.

Adrian said he did not know the woman's name because other detectives conducted the investigation of the incident.

The detective said the probe coupled with a witness' testimony resulted in the DA ruling.

The stabbing death apparently occurred at the Yorkshire Hotel at 710 South Broadway where Collins was residing, Adrian reported.

"He apparently attacked her and she stabbed him. He was stabbed once in the chest and died at the scene," the detective stated.

Collins was the uncle of the late Jay C. Collins, 12, of 522 Booker St. in Bay St. Louis who drowned Saturday in an apartment complex swimming pool.

Announcement of joint funeral services for the two appears in today's Sea Coast Echo Obituary column, Page 2A.

Criminal justice facility bond issue to be on Nov. ballot

By JUNE M. HEYDT

Hancock County Board of Supervisors unanimously approved the placing of a $2.5 million bond issue to finance construction of a new Hancock County jail on the ballot Nov. 8.

The board accepted the report and recommendation of its citizens advisory committee, which was appointed to study the possibility of a new jail.

"I strongly endorse passage," Sheriff Ronnie Peterson said, "and I will be out working for it."

The bond issue, which will increase property taxes by five percent which means if a person has been paying $100 taxes they would now pay $105, said Fred Wagner, architect.

The proposed new jail will have the capacity to hold 53 inmates. The present jail, built in 1937 has a capacity to hold 15 inmates but has housed as many as 50 in recent years.

The feasibility study, drawn up by N.C. Curtis Jr. and Wagner, architects, calls for using the existing building for county offices and constructing the new jail in the area now serving as a parking lot behind the county courthouse.

Courthouse parking would be relocated to county-owned property across the street adjacent to the Youth Court and Sea Coast Echo buildings on Court Street.

Three security personnel would need to be added to the current staff for operating the proposed two story structure.

Included in the proposal is the creation of a central dispatch office, combining the efforts of the sheriff's office, Bay St. Louis and Waveland police departments. The combination will save on overall personnel costs, the report reads.

"A cooperative arrangement with the two cities could avoid the duplication of effort and manpower in both the fire department and police dispatching service," the report says.

On Nov. 8, 1981, Judge William Keady of the United States District Court, signed an order regarding use of local jails for incarceration of State prisoners. The county jail does not meet the requirements set down, and it does not meet the requirements for health, sanitation and life safety, the report states.

The report further states that the physical plant lacks adequate heat, light, ventilation, sanitation and fire exits. It is just a matter of time before the facility will be a dangerous unit for housing inmates, not only state prisoners but county prisoners as well," the committee wrote.

The committee was appointed by the board in February after the grand jury strongly recommended that the jail be replaced. Its chairman is Terry Feeney who served as the grand jury foreman.

Other members of the committee are Sam Pernicaro, supervisor District Four; James Travica, supervisor District Five; Circuit Judge Ruble Griffin; Albert Nealise, district attorney; John Genin, county attorney; Walter Gex, board attorney; and Sheriff Ronnie Peterson.

Also, Chief Douglas Williams, Bay St. Louis Police Department; Chief Donald Dorn, Waveland Police Department; Jerry Heitzmann, circuit clerk; Jeff Taylor, Gulf Regional Planning Commission; Eddie Favre, city clerk, Bay St. Louis; and Faye Lusich.

And, Alvin Lader Jr., Mary Treat, Ola Jean Moran, Capt. John McDonnell, Vic Franchiewicz Jr., Roger James, Geraldine Lang, Pamela Metzler.

Herbert Bilbo, Bob Hubbard, Linda Dupuis, Jan Brameyer, Lana Noonan, secretary.

Treaty of Paris marked end of U.S. Revolution

By JOE PILET

Patriotic Americans are urged to display their United States flags Saturday in remembrance of the Treaty of Paris, the final peace treaty which ended the eight years long Revolutionary War.

The treaty, signed in Paris by officials of the United States and Great Britain, gave Americans liberal boundaries, as well as rights to fish off the coast of Newfoundland.

In the words of Thomas Paine, "The Revolutionary War contributed more to enlighten the world and diffuse a spirit of freedom and liberality among mankind than any human event that ever preceded it."

Mrs. Philip Davenport, historian for the Friendship Oak Chapter National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, said, "The United States stands as a fine example of a nation created by colonial people—freed and governed by its own representatives."

"On April 19, 1775 Minute Men and Redcoats clashed in Lexington, and the first major battle of the Revolutionary War was fought at Bennington in Vermont on Aug. 16, 1777," Davenport continued.

"The close of that conflict with the Treaty of Paris truly marks the birth of the greatest free nation the world has ever known," she stated.

GREAT IDEAS

"Six Great Ideas," a series with Bill Moyers and Mortimer Adler exploring Western civilization's greatest philosophical concepts, returns to Mississippi ETV for a repeat broadcast at 6 p.m., Sundays, beginning Sept. 4.

Adler and Moyers and their guests examine truth, beauty, goodness, liberty, equality and justice.

In each program in the series, Adler explores a single philosophical subject and its relationship to the lives of everyday people.

Moyers and an international panel of leaders in academia, jurisprudence, industry and philosophy pose questions and challenges for Adler about each of the six ideas the series examines.

RUBINSTEIN TAPE

A taped performance from April 15, 1975, of Arthur Rubinstein performing Beethoven's "The Emperor Concerto" will be presented at 8 p.m., Monday, Sept. 5, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

Rubinstein, who died at the age of 88 on December 20, 1982, performs with the Jerusalem Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Alexander Schneider. The concert, given at the Jerusalem Theater, is considered the last recording ever made by Rubinstein of the concerto.

FOLK MUSIC

Tom Rush, a folk star of the 1960s, recalls the romantic popularity of some of America's best folk music in "Tom Rush at Symphony Hall: A New Year," which will be rebroadcast at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, on Mississippi ETV.

The one-hour concert special, recorded live at Boston's Symphony Hall, features acoustic guitar virtuoso Tom Rush, together with special guests Emmylou Harris, David Bromberg, David Buskin and Robin Batteau, performing old favorites and new numbers as well.

A former French street singer, Rush began playing New England's coffee houses, notably Boston's The Unicorn and Cambridge's Club 47, long before other contemporary folk artists like Bob Dylan.

This program was first seen on ETV in January.

Football time arrives Friday night with all four area high schools teams scheduled for action.

The Bay High Tigers under the direction of "Snuffy" Smith, head coach, will be given a stern test in their opening encounter against the Stone County Tomcats at the Perkinston Junior College stadium.

The Tomcats, in recent years seem to put that extra effort up against the Tigers.

Things should be buzzing at the Hancock North Central Stadium Friday night when the Hawks entertain the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws.

Hawk coach Irvin Favre and Rock mentor Vernon Powell both should have their respective squads ready for the game. In recent years, the Hawks and Rock-A-Chaws have played some very exciting close games.

The Pass Christian Pirates will invade the Warriors of d'Iberville Friday.

The Pirates should have a new look this season with Kenneth McKinney as the new head coach.

We are hoping all football fans will do their best to try and see their favorites play Friday night.

The weather has been hot in recent days, but, just think about the football players, they have been practicing in the heat.

Hope to see you at the game.

We have had several persons inquire about why our column was not in the Sunday's edition.

The reason was because we were out of town. The hot weather was not missed as the temperature was close to 100 degrees in Irving, Texas.

Members of the Waveland Civic Association are very busy for the coming Labor Day weekend.

The local group is involved in two very important functions.

The local group will again be involved in the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon from 5 p.m. Sunday until 6 p.m. on Monday.

On Sunday the Civic Association in cooperation with the cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland and the Hancock County Board of Supervisors will present the annual Fireworks Spectacular starting at 8:30 p.m.

The fireworks will be at the Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier in Waveland and gives everyone a good view from Beach Boulevard.

Jimmy Lagasse, chairman for the Muscular Dystrophy and coordinator for the drive in Hancock County and West Harrison County said he hopes to collect many pledges this year.

The telephone numbers to call to make a pledge are 467-4134 or 467-9248. The telephones will be manned from 5 p.m. Sunday until 6 p.m. Labor Day.

People can help in many ways, and we understand several food outlets have already reported to be sending food for the workers during the telethon.

The local group's headquarters will be at the Waveland City Hall on Coleman Avenue.

Most people are familiar with the many good works which are performed by the telethons being successful in fighting Muscular Dystrophy, so we urge everyone able to make a contribution.

This morning at 7:30 a.m. at the Landmark Restaurant, Bay St. Louis, the United Way campaign will have a Dutch treat kickoff breakfast.

As most of you know, the local United Way helps many agencies in our county.

We wish Hilda Bourg, drive chairman, success in reaching the goal of $45,000 set for this year by the United Way's directors.

Without the help of the citizens of the county the fund drive could not be successful. As we have been directly involved in the United Way for many years, we want to personally thank everyone who has helped.

We are also hoping everyone will help make 1983's campaign a success.

MARIJUANA HARVEST—Some 411 marijuana plants were harvested by state and local police growing off US-90 near the Ansley Road and Highway Truck Scales on Monday. Photo at top shows Robert (Poochy) Tartavouille, right, Waveland investigator followed by Mickey Ladner and David Brooks, Mississippi State Trooper Investigators carrying arm loads from woods onto paperwood road. Hancock Sheriff Ronald Peterson, right, left photo, and Stanley Hamilton, Hancock County deputy check height of plants before being loaded on pickup truck to be taken to incinerator to be destroyed. Joe Price, senior investigator for the Mississippi State Troopers said the marijuana was growing on nine plots fenced with chicken wire. Peterson estimated street value of plants at $150-200,000. The crop was under surveillance for over a week. The marijuana was spotted from a helicopter in the isolated area. The harvest of the local marijuana is being pushed by Mississippi's Governor William Winter throughout the state. (Staff photos by Ellis Cuevas).

Blindness prevention group urging regular eye examinations

People have a tendency to be crisis-oriented in health matters—for example, to go to an eye doctor only when they have symptoms, such as eye pain or persistent blurry vision," according to Donette Lee, president of the National Society to Prevent Blindness Mississippi Affiliate.

"Unfortunately, several leading causes of blindness—glaucoma and diabetic eye disease—can get a firm foothold because people put off getting regular eye checkups.

"Not only can that part of sight already lost to these diseases never be restored, but effective treatment is strongly linked to dealing with the problems in their early stages," says Lee. To call attention to the gift that needs guarding—good eyesight—the Society is introducing a new theme to generate public awareness.

"Save the sunsets" is the Society's way of telling Americans to take steps to save sight for a lifetime. The new theme messages, launched during September, National Sight-Saving Month, caution that for half of the 50,000 people who are projected to lose their vision this year, it need not happen. According to the Society, half of all blindness can be prevented.

As a first step toward taking away the guesswork about eye health, the Society urges all adults to check their vision with its new Home Eye Test for Adults. The Society, marking its 75th anniversary this year, is the nation's oldest voluntary health agency devoted to sight preservation.

The Home Eye Test for Adults was developed by the Society with the aid of the nation's leading optometric society as a way to enable people to determine if they are seeing as well as they should. "It may turn out that eye exams are the only tests that can prevent blindness," says Lee.

change in their prescription," explains Lee. "But the test can warn of more serious eye problems.

"The value of any screening test is not to reassure those with positive results they have a clean bill of health but rather to persuade those who fail to seek professional eye care," says Lee.

The Home Eye Test for Adults checks three distinct areas of visual function: distance vision, near vision, and for defects in central vision. The latter is specifically linked to macular degeneration, which affects the ability to read and see objects in sharp focus and is the nation's leading cause of new cases of blindness.

Help the National Society to Prevent Blindness celebrate its 75th anniversary of sight-saving services by checking up on your own vision.

Write: National Society to Prevent Blindness, Mississippi Affiliate, 115 Broadmoor Drive, Jackson, MS 39206. Address your envelope to "Home Eye Test for Adults" and enclose one dollar for postage and handling costs.

Conference on Tourism
Following one of the most successful statewide tourism conferences in the southeast in 1982, the 1983 Governor's Conference on Tourism sponsored by the Mississippi Department of Economic Development, Division of Tourism, will aim for even higher goals when the State Tourism Industry meets Oct. 16-18 at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and Convention Center in Biloxi. Once again the theme of the conference, "Tourism is Everybody's Business," will focus upon preparing the state travel and tourism industry for the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition which begins in nine months. Seminar topics such as "Effective Communication Means Money" and "Advertising and Selling Your Tourism Product" have been designed with the practical goal of maximizing the State's economic potential during the six-month Exposition.

In addition the 1983 Governor's Conference will include Mississippi's first national travel and tourism industry marketplace. Entitled the Mississippi/Trailways Business Marketplace, this event will provide participants with the opportunity to meet with group travel and tour planners representing Trailways Bus Companies nationwide.

During pre-scheduled appointments marketplace participants will discuss their business property or attraction with representatives who routinely plan and structure group travel and whose primary interest will be the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition.

Adding to the importance of this marketplace, the Trailways promotional campaign "Don't Miss Mississippi" identifies the State as an official Trailways travel destination during the coming year.

Conferees may also look forward to the second annual "Hall of Ideas"—a showcase for products and attractions of the State travel and tourism industry and an encore of the "Taste of Mississippi" gala which features delicacies prepared by restaurateurs from across the State.

The 1983 Governor's Conference on Tourism and Mississippi/Trailways Business Marketplace have been designed to meet the needs of the Mississippi travel industry. Industry representatives may participate in both the conference and marketplace or only the conference by registering with the 1983 Governor's Conference on Tourism.

Due to the time frame involved in computer appointment scheduling for the marketplace, registration for the Conference, Marketplace and Hall of Ideas must be received by Sept. 8. Delegates participating in just the conference seminars and Hall of Ideas will have till Oct. 7 to register.

For more information concerning the 1983 Governor's Conference on Tourism, call the Mississippi Department of Economic Development, Division of Tourism at 1-800-862-2346 toll free or write 1983 Governor's Conference on Tourism, c/o Division of Tourism, Post Office Box 849, Jackson, Ms. 39205.

ELECTION COMMISSIONERS MEET—From left, Frank Lee, Charles Gottschalk, Jerry Seuzeneau, John V. Ladner, and Jacob V. Ladner met Tuesday evening to discuss the first and second democratic primaries. The main issue was whether the primaries should be considered legal since there were so many irregularities. Gottschalk, who is the secretary of the commission, said he felt that most of the problems were caused because of the redistricting and not due to any misconduct. (Staff photo by June M. Heydt)

Life Beyond Work
By FORREST WOOD
USM Philosophy and Religion Dept.

For people who thought that life was work, what do they do after they quit working?

For people who thought that life was for making money, what do they do after they stop making money?

The folks had said, "Go to college so you can get a job." But colleges do a lot more than provide job training, and a lot of Mississippians more than 40 years old, even older than 65, know this.

The University of Southern Mississippi registered 190 students older than 45 during the fall of 1962.

Millsaps College had more than 1,000 persons enrolled in its Community Enrichment program last year.

In fact, each of the state universities has had to create a position in the student services office just to help these adult students.

Some of these students "audit" courses, which means that they pay the normal tuition fees and complete the same assignments as regular students, but they don't receive a grade.

Others just pay $10 for a "listener's permit" to visit whatever classes they choose.

The Millsaps Community Enrichment classes cost $25-50, last from 4 to 8 weeks, and meet in late afternoon (for persons who don't get out after dark) and at night. There are no age limitations in these classes. Teen-agers mix with grandparents in design, music, writing classes.

Millsaps has also just begun a degree program for persons with full time jobs, or other obligations that preclude their enrolling in a regular degree program.

To enroll in their bachelor of liberal studies program, a student must be at least 25 years old and complete an introductory seminar, Introduction to Liberal Arts.

From that point on, the student works with faculty members in a series of independent study courses. Right now 68 persons are enrolled. The oldest person is 69 and the average age of the entire group is 40.

Why are these people doing this?

Perhaps the hurry to get a job or to start a family previously prevented a formal education. Perhaps these persons realize that there is a richness to life to be found in philosophy, history, literature, and art that can be missed in the pursuit of a career.

One thing is for certain: these students know that they have missed something. They know that the passions of the mind stimulate us and keep us alive even when they confuse us, torment and bedevil us.

These students are not empty and directionless, their instructors report. They are pursuing the great ideas of civilization to enrich their lives, to enhance their understanding, and to encourage their communication with others.

Philosophy requires self-reflection. Is what I know true? How is the evil me related to the good me? Why CORPORATE GUEST—Dennis J. Arnold, son of Carl A. Arnold of Bay St. Louis, was guest of the Milre Corporation in Bedford, Mass., Saturday, Aug. 27 for the company's 25th anniversary celebration. Arnold provided the entertainment in the Italian Pavilion, one of eight representing the foreign installations of this firm. Accompanied by Peter Ghiloni, Arnold presented selections from light opera, Broadway musicals and love songs. Arnold has presented recitals in New Orleans and in Bay St. Louis with New Orleans opera star and his teacher, Barbara Faulkner-Bernard. He has also performed for Our Lady's Academy Carnival Ball and has sung for the crews of Bal Masque and Babylon in New Orleans. He has sung the roles of Melchior in Le Petit Theatre du Vieux Carre's production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors" by Menotti and the Barman in Tulane Lyric Opera's "The Saint of Bleeker Street." Arnold is presently baritone soloist for First Methodist Church in New Orleans and is employed by the New Orleans branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

HOLD IT!—The "Doctor Who" series on Mississippi ETV starring Tom Baker as the intergalactic Time Lord, pictured here, changes its coordinates and materializes in two new time slots beginning Saturday, Sept. 3, and Monday, Sept. 5. The popular cult series from the BBC starring Tom Baker, which has aired on Mississippi ETV for the past two years at 6 p.m., weekdays, moves to 10:30 p.m., weekdays, effective Monday, Sept. 5, with part one of "Horror of Fang Rock." In addition, at 7 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 3, weekly movie versions of "Doctor Who" starring Baker will begin with Baker's first "Doctor Who" story, "Robot." Pictured above from "The Sunmakers" are Baker and, in the background, Louise Jameson, who portrays one of the doctor's Companions, Leela.

State's tumbling infant mortality rate still second highest

The infant mortality rate—the number of infant deaths per 1,000 live births—has declined steadily in Mississippi and the nation since the turn of the century. During the last three decades, the infant death rate in Mississippi has declined by 64 percent, dropping from a high of 40.8 deaths per 1,000 births in 1960 to 14.8 deaths in 1981.

This improvement is attributed to better nutrition for expectant mothers, better housing, and improved prenatal, obstetrical, and pediatric care.

However, according to a report compiled by the Mississippi Research and Development Center, Mississippi still has one of the highest infant mortality rates in the nation.

The state rate is second to South Carolina's rate of 15.3 percent.

The national infant mortality rate in 1981 was 11.7 percent.

An examination of average infant mortality rates in Mississippi's 82 counties from 1977 to 1981 shows a wide variation ranging from 7.6 deaths per 1,000 live births in Benton County to 34.7 deaths in Humphreys County.

Statistics also reveal a large disparity in infant mortality rates for white and nonwhite babies, the largest being between black and white infants. For 1979—the most recent year data is available on all states by race—the infant mortality rate for blacks in Mississippi was 23.6 deaths per 1,000 live births, compared to 11.9 deaths for whites.

In the U.S., these rates were 21.8 deaths per 1,000 live births for blacks and 11.4 deaths for whites.

Figures also indicate that in Mississippi, as in the nation, mortality rates are higher for infants from lower socioeconomic groups than from those in higher socioeconomic groups.

Mortality rates in the nation are higher for white infants in lower socioeconomic groups. The difference between socioeconomic groups was considerably greater for deaths after the first week of life than for those in very early infancy.

Approximately 68 percent of infant mortality in the U.S. is accounted for by deaths occurring during the first 28 days of life.

Major causes of death during this period are asphyxia, congenital malformation, and birth injury.

The remaining 32 percent of infant deaths in the U.S. occur during the postneonatal period, age 28 days to 11 months.

Deaths in this age group are principally caused by sudden infant death syndrome, pneumonia, influenza, accidents, and gastroenteritis.

Copies of the R & D report, 'An Analysis of Infant Mortality Rates in Mississippi and Selected Counties,' may be obtained by contacting Ruby Hendricks, Economic Analysis Division, Mississippi Research and Development Center, 3825 Ridgewood Road, Jackson, MS 39211.

Growing Child

A CHILD'S FEET

When you look at a toddler's feet you may wonder if they are flat because you cannot see a long arch.

When a toddler begins to stand, her feet and ankles are barely ready for weight-bearing, according to Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter.

A child will look quite flat-footed as she stands holding on to the side rails of her crib or play pen, feet spread apart and often rolled inward at the ankles. But this flat-footed look is somewhat deceiving.

and flexibility which only strong arches can provide.

In societies such as ours where shoes are worn, the fat pad under the arch gradually disappears when it is no longer needed and the fully developed arch can be seen by about age five.

It is important to a toddler's motor development as well as to her future comfort that her feet have the best possible chance to grow straight, flexible, and strong.

First walking shoes should have sturdy but flexible soles which are not slick on the bottom. Uppers should be soft

The fit of a toddler's socks is as important as the fit of her shoes. Properly fitted socks are of no help if her socks are too short. Be careful with stretch socks. After you have pulled them over the feet, pull them out at the toes again to relieve any pressure.

Your toddler should also have plenty of opportunity to walk about barefoot so that she experiences the feel of the floor against her feet and learns to grip it with her toes. If floors are chilly, confine her barefoot experiences to crib or playpen.

Good shoes for the toddler are not cheap but they are very important. Take good care of your child's feet and they will serve her well for many years to come.

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information about the social and physical development of children (and a free sample newsletter), write to Growing Child, P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing.

The toddler's bones are still quite soft and her foot and ankle muscles are not yet strong enough to support her arch as she stands. However, she has some natural arch in the form of fat pads which support her arches when she stands. It is these fat pads which make her feet look as though they are flat.

As a toddler walks more and more, the muscles which support her arch grow stronger. Later she will learn to run and jump, first flat-footed, and then with the strong push-off

Labor Day, in the days when I was growing up, signaled the end of summer fun on the Gulf Coast, for that's when summer really ended for those of us who had to return to New Orleans and settle down to the schoolroom once more — and how I envied my friends who were so fortunate as to live all the year round along the Sound and the Bay! They at least could alleviate the classroom routine with sorties to the beach and swim and such!

Of course, today's youngsters return to the classroom before Labor Day — but the long weekend is still theirs, and ours to enjoy. So, what are you cooking up for that "Farewell to Summer" feast outdoors?

If you and the budget are "in the pink" — not the red — you may be planning to grill steaks or a roast or such. Then, there's always the hamburger and the hot dog and so on.

But, what more appropriate farewell to summer fun along the Coast could there be but a feast from the waters? Crabs, fish, shrimp all are excellent choices for the outdoor grill. . . just remember the cardinal rule of seafood cookery — DON'T OVERCOOK!

Fish, well seasoned and wrapped in a heavy foil overcoat, are delicious when grilled over the barbecue pit. Foil roasted corn and onions and potatoes are excellent accompaniments.

But, for a truly memorable feast, why not enjoy our crabs, hard or soft shell, equally delicious?

Just marinate raw, cleaned crab bodies in a sauce of your own choosing, put them on the grill and brush with the sauce, and let them cook to their delectable best.

For this, some like to use the traditional tomato or catsup-barbecue sauce, but I prefer a sauce of minced onion and garlic, lemon juice (with the peel) and dashes of white wine and oil and hot pepper sauce and Worcestershire sauce, all mixed together, as this lets the crab flavor come through more to my liking.

But what I really, really like — when I can get my greedy hands on enough soft shell crabs or have hoarded enough in the freezer, is:

SOFTSHELLS

CELESTIAL

12 dressed soft shell crabs (fresh or frozen)
3/4 cup chopped fresh parsley
1/2 cup oil
1 Tbsp lemon juice
Generous dash of Tabasco sauce
Lemon wedges

Clean, wash and dry the crabs, and place them in a well greased hinged wire grill. Mix up all the seasonings except for the lemon wedges (they're for garnish) and baste the crabs with this. Cook about four or five inches from moderately hot coals for just several short minutes. Turn and cook for several minutes more or until very lightly browned. Serve with lemon wedges and parsley sprigs. (Six servings.) (Copyright, 1983, Katharine D.M. Caire)

Story Hour tales told

Pre-school children are invited to attend story hour every Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the City-County Library, located in Bay St. Louis.

The first story to be read this week is "Cornelius" by Leo Lionni. "Where is Thumbkin," a finger play will be performed next. "Good as New" by Barbara Douglas is the second book to be read.

Story hour will end with the motion picture film "Moon Man".

TO THE RESIDENTS OF BEAT 1

FROM
ROBERT B. PETERSON, JR. & FAMILY

My family and I would like to offer thanks to all for your support in the run-off election of August 23rd.

My commitment is a full-time effort to make this district the best possible place to live and raise our families. I know we all share this dream. Before the general election I hope to have the opportunity to discuss issues of concern with all Beat 1 residents. My sincere appreciation for your vote of confidence. I look forward to representing and working each day for all the people of this district.

My sincere thanks,

Ladner brought up the issue of candidates not being legally certified by the Executive Committee in the time allotted. He questioned again the certification of a man running for supervisor.

Ladner said, "All right, I'll mention who I mean, Lloyd Anderson. He should not have qualified since he was running for a supervisors seat which is considered a judicial office. The law states that anyone who has been taken out of a judicial office cannot ever run again for a judicial office."

Heitzman said, "A letter was written to the Attorney General's office asking for clarification on that point. The letter stated that the attorney general recommended that this man was entitled to run."

Lee told Ladner, "You're sitting here in front of the press making statements about people who are not here to defend themselves."

Seuzeneau said, "Refresh my memory, he was tried in circuit court and found innocent. The Judicial Performance Committee removed him from office."

"You're not guilty until you're proven guilty. Anderson was not proven guilty. He was not convicted. I'm not an attorney but I think you should go to the board of supervisors or the attorney general. If they certified these candidates then these are the ones to put on the ballot," Seuzeneau said.

Ladner said, "We cannot continue to cover for a party. If we want to be like the communists then let Joe Benvenuti run it."

Ladner added, "If this motion dies for lack of a second, I still intend to pursue this."

Seuzeneau said, "I'm not going to second this unless we have proof. If someone brings me proof that these things have happened then I may feel different."

Ladner, "I would take an oath that these things are facts."

The motion died for lack of a second. Ladner made a second motion asking the election commission to inform the Democratic Chairman of the Executive Committee that he must bring a letter certifying that a meeting was held for the qualification of candidates. That a copy of the minutes be presented to the election commission in order to determine if this primary was conducted according to the statutes."

Charles Gottschalk, election commission secretary said, "First, the election commission doesn't have any authority over the Democratic Executive Committee. We can only request not demand a copy of the minutes of the meeting."

Gottschalk continued, "I think if we made a simple request asking Joseph Benvenuti to meet with us that he would."

"I also think that the minutes of the meeting are open to the public."

Ladner's second motion also died for lack of a second.

Gottschalk also said during the meeting, "The poll workers were the ones who really helped the election. Our poll workers did an excellent job. Certainly we were at a great disadvantage with the redistricting it was a heavy handicap. But if there was any misjustice done it lies in the redistricting, we did not have ample time and this goes back to the Justice department and the changing of the poll books."

"I don't think you can say it was misconducted," added Gottschalk.

Ladner made the statement, "If we can't do our jobs I suggest we all go to the Board of Supervisors and turn in our resignations."

"I want the names of the people who certified the candidates for the first primary. If it was not carried out correctly, then I can't do my job," ended Ladner.

Bay police arrest
Nashville escapee

By JUNE M. HEYDT
Bay St. Louis police picked up Rita Gail Shelton, 29, an escapee from the Nashville, Tenn. Women's Prison, Tuesday afternoon, according to Murray Ladner, chief investigator. Shelton, who escaped Sept. 6, 1982, was arrested at the Louisville Garden Apartments, 117 DeMontuain Ave., said Ladner.

The woman was charged with 13 counts of forgery and is now being detained at the Hancock County jail, Ladner confirmed.

Ladner said they received a letter from the Nashville police stating they believed she was in this area. "Assisting Ladner were Officer Joe Pica and Capt. Robert Butler.

CADET STANT

Cadet Stephen H. Stant Jr., son of Stephen H. and Judy R. Stant of 133 State St., Bay St. Louis, received practical work in military leadership at the U.S. Army ROTC advanced camp, or university and will result in the student's being commissioned a second lieutenant in the active Army or the U.S. Army Reserve or National Guard, Fort Riley, Kan.

The six-week camp, attended by cadets normally between their third and fourth year of college, includes instruction in communications, management and survival training.

Successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from college results in a commission as a second Lieutenant in either the U.S. Army, Army Reserve or National Guard for the cadet. Stant is a ROTC cadet and a student at the University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg.

MANY THANKS

At this time I want to express my sincere thanks to all of those who supported me in the Democratic Primary. I wish to congratulate Mr. Alton Kellar on a fine race and wish him much success during his next term. Special thanks goes to everyone who took the time to vote and express their voice in government. This is what makes our system function.

TIMBERLINE

By David Watts
Hancock County Forester

A Cheaper Way

Forest landowners in this area have all heard the advantages and disadvantages of planting young seedlings, but some have never heard of using the seed tree method for establishing a stand of trees.

This method has been around for quite some time. Simply stated it's a system that provides for natural re-establishment of a stand of trees by the leaving of well-distributed seed trees in a harvested area.

The Forestry Commission is often called upon for advice about what to do with property that has been cleared of timber, and now has only a few scattered pines and briars.

Usually, the landowner has not put the tract back into production because of the high cost of preparing and planting the area.

But many landowners are unaware that with only a small amount of planning, enough of the original trees can be left to completely replant a harvested stand.

Most landowners only know of the management systems they see practiced by industry and government foresters.

This usually involves harvesting all of the trees in a stand and then starting from scratch planting seedlings by hand or machine. These methods are the fastest and guarantee a certain number of seedlings per acre, but there is a much less costly alternative.

Planning for the use of the less costly seed tree system begins well before the landowner harvests his timber. First, the best seed producing trees within the stand are selected. Their selection is based primarily upon their past history of cone production and how well suited they are to withstand future winds.

This plays a critical role, since they will have no protection from the elements once the other trees are removed. In selecting a wind-firm tree, look for those which have grown in the open on deep soils with stony, tapering trunks.

There should be at least 9-10 seed trees left per acre, depending upon the diameter and type of pine involved. Trees less than 12 inches in diameter are usually too immature to produce a large enough cone crop to be effective.

Generally, enough soil is disturbed during harvesting to properly prepare the acreage for a seed fall. If not, the area should be burned just before seedfall begins in early October. This step exposes mineral soil for the seed fall.

When enough seedlings to make a full stand have become established, the seed trees have accomplished their purpose. They can then be removed, leaving the new stand to develop.

The seed tree method is only one of several available alternatives for establishing a stand of trees. It eliminates a lot of expensive labor and machinery costs in tree planting.

Would your property be suitable for this method of regeneration? Call us and we'll come take a look.

Truck loads of pulpwood are a familiar sight to most Hancock Countians, but few of us realize the many useful products manufactured from this load of wood.

The average truck load of pulpwood will yield varying amounts of products as follows:

20% million toothpicks
3,000 - 6,000 lbs. of paper, depending on the manufacturing process used.
2,825 one-pound books
183,000 envelopes
13,000,000 postage stamps
1,380,000 personal checks
269,610 sheets of typing paper

3,600 copies of the National Geographic Magazine
8,100 copies of an average daily newspaper

The next time you see a truck load of pulpwood, think of it not just as wood, but as raw material for manufacturing more than 5,000 useful products needed by our society.

Did you know too, that the stumpage dollars paid to the landowner from whose land the pulpwood was harvested turn over about nine times in our state's economy?

By this I mean that in addition to the money the owner received, the logger, equipment sales people, gasoline stations, banks, etc. also will get "value added" because these trees were sold, cut, transported, processed and manufactured.

We've got a lot of wooded acres in this county that could provide added dollars to all our pocketbooks "on down the road," if we'll just get them into a more productive condition. Call us if you want a free assessment of the situation in your timberland. We want to help.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

The following ordinance effective September 2, 1975, provides for the free pick-up of garbage and dry trash in the City of Waveland. This service will remain free as long as the ordinance is observed by all our citizens. Your observance to its requirements will be appreciated.

ORDINANCE NO. 100
AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE PACKAGING AND PLACING OF TRASH FOR COLLECTION, AND THE COLLECTION OF TRASH IN THE CITY OF WAVELAND, HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI
BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Waveland:

SECTION 1: On and after the effective date of this Ordinance, the City of Waveland shall collect only such trash as is properly packaged and in accordance with this Ordinance.

SECTION 2: All trash to be collected by the City of Waveland will be placed on the right-of-way, but not in the roadway of the street in front of an individual's residence or lot; said trash shall be in lengths no greater than six feet and shall be securely tied with a rope, wire or other means of packaging same so that it can be easily handled by the City Sanitation forces.

SECTION 3: Trash shall be defined as all litter, debris, limbs, trees, stumps and any and all other matter commonly referred to as trash; but not including garbage as defined in City Ordinance Number 33.

SECTION 4: No limb or tree trunk shall be picked up if said tree trunk or limb is in excess of 8" in diameter nor shall any trash or bundle be picked up which shall weigh more than 60 pounds.

SECTION 5: This section shall be supplemental to and not in substitution of City Ordinances and State Laws applying to littering and keeping unsanitary lots and any person failing to observe the requirements of this Ordinance shall be liable to action pursuant to the aforesaid Ordinances and Laws on littering and maintaining unsanitary lots and such other Laws and Ordinances as may be applicable hereto.

SECTION 6: This Ordinance shall become effective 30 days from its passage.

Thank you

My Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for the trust and confidence you showed by making me your Democratic nominee for Governor. I have achieved this honor because people like you have worked tirelessly on my behalf, and I deeply appreciate your support.

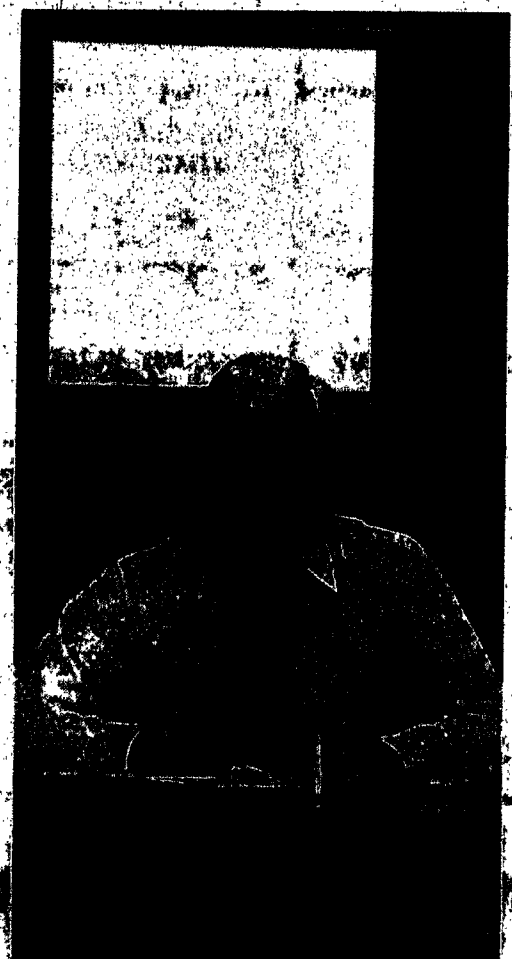

As we look ahead to the November general election, I am eager to visit with you personally to express my gratitude. In the meantime, we must all work together, as we have in the past, to insure our victory in November.

Again, thank you very much.

Mayors in conflict over hospital site

By JUNE M. HEYDT

Making the statement, "It's pretty shabby politics," Waveland Mayor John Longo left the Hancock County Board of Supervisors meeting Monday following the board's decision to drop an option to buy property in Waveland for a new Hancock County General Hospital.

The option was offered by the heirs of Emile J. Gex Sr. to sell the county 21 acres on Nicholson Avenue at Old Spanish Trail for $231,000. The option ran out Monday evening.

Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett told the supervisors Monday that the council had located a more suitable property of about 20 acres on US-90 and Drinkwater Road, owned by Norman Benigno.

Longo said, "I, as a taxpayer, want to know why anyone would pay $13,000 more an acre for the property in question, when it doesn't even have sewage or water facilities."

Longo said he had heard that the property in Bay St. Louis in question would cost $24,000 an acre.

Longo stated that the Nicholson Avenue property would be easily accessible to all areas of the county and that Waveland has made a commitment to provide drainage and lighting. He added that only the Waveland sewage system is able to provide adequate sewage collection and treatment for a new hospital.

"Bay St. Louis already has a suit against them for $200 million for not providing the people with the sewage that was promised years ago," Longo continued.

"The property in Waveland already has everything available and will be easily accessible to Clermont Harbor and people in the Klin. It's a matter of saving lives that we're talking about here," said Longo.

However, Bennett argued that Bay St. Louis will be in a position to put in sewage and water because of a loan the city has received for $2.5 million from Farmer's Home Administration.

Ron Murray of Ron Murray Consultants said the city is eligible for an Urban Development Action Grant, which may be used to match local dollars on a 3-1 ratio. The city could receive the grant and lend the money to the county at a negotiated rate.

Longo interjected and said, "Waveland has more grants than anyone on the coast," and added, "You're looking at thousands and thousands of dollars to put in sewage for a hospital in Bay St. Louis. All these things are already available in Waveland."

Bert Courge, supervisor District One made a motion to accept the option on the Waveland property but the motion died for want of a second.

Roger Dale Ladner, supervisor District Three, made a motion to allow the option to expire. He added, "It's time we get serious about finding a site for the hospital."

Ladner's motion passed on a 3-2 vote. Courge and A.A. (Dolph) Keller voted against the motion.

Courge said when they met with the doctors from the hospital about three weeks ago they were all in agreement for the site in Waveland.

Courge said he has been involved with a study on the hospital site for over a year and that they keep coming back to this particular property.

A concerned citizen, Lana Noonan, asked the board, "How much did the study cost the taxpayers?"

Longo extended his hands and said, "The city of Waveland graciously did it for free," and left the board room.

September Education Reform Act hearing schedule in Hattiesburg

A series of public hearings on education will be conducted in September as part of the implementation of the Education Reform Act of 1982.

The hearings, in Jackson, Grenada and Hattiesburg, will be jointly held by the Performance-based School Assessment Task Force and the Commission on Teacher and Administrator Education, Certification and Development.

Both the task force and commission were created by the reform act.

The hearing in Jackson will be Monday, Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the Woolfolk State Office Building auditorium.

In Grenada, the hearing will be at Grenada High School at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 22.

The hearing in Hattiesburg will also be Thursday, Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at Blair High School.

The public is invited to make comments on certification or accreditation during the hearings and is also invited to submit written testimony if unable to attend a hearing.

Send comments to the chairman of either group at P. O. Box 771, Jackson, MS 39205.

STREAMS MARKING PROPERTY LINE

QUESTION: I own a farm that has a stream separating my property from that of my neighbor's. During recent years, I have noticed the stream seems to be changing course. Will this affect my boundary line? C. A., Madison

ANSWER: Dear C. A.: Landowners like yourself whose property boundary is marked by a stream often wonder what would happen if the stream changed its course. Do they stand to gain or lose large quantities of land overnight due to a shift of the stream?

As you know the common way to transfer title to land is voluntary through a deed. However, there are other ways, one of which is known as transfer by accretion. Accretion refers to the idea that the owner of land is entitled to all that the soil produces or all that is added to the land either intentionally or by mistake.

The movement of water can and does change the amount of land an owner has. Specifically, whether or not the boundary line changes depends on what caused the watercourse to change. There are three possible causes: accretion, erosion and avulsion.

Accretion refers to land which is accumulated by the gradual washing or motion of water. Title may be given by nature through accretion to owners who have land adjoining rivers, lakes or oceans.

Erosion is the wearing away of land caused by the normal movement of water.

A similar process of acquiring new land is reliction or dereliction. This is a process by which water gradually recedes, leaving dry land where water was previously.

These concepts should be contrasted with avulsion, a sudden change in the bed of a river which has been used as a boundary by property owners.

If the stream shifts due to accretion or erosion, the property's boundary shifts accordingly.

However, a sudden change due to avulsion conveys no new land; the dry bed remains as the boundary.

For answers to your questions, write Dr. Dennis Tosh, P. O. Box 259, University, MS 38677.

ASCS NEWS

MILK REFUND PROGRAM BEGINS

Dairy producers who wish a refund of their second 50-cent per cwt. deduction for milk marketings should establish their base marketings at their county ASCS office, said Everett Rank, administrator of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

The dairy refund program will go into effect Sept. 1 with implementation of the second 50 cent milk marketing deduction.

To be eligible for a 1982-83 marketing year refund, producers must reduce their commercial milk marketings for Sept. 1, 1983, through Sept. 30, 1983 by 8.4 percent from the September average of the two marketing years that began Oct. 1, 1980.

To be eligible for a 1983-84 marketing year refund, producers must reduce their commercial milk marketing by 8.4 percent for the period Oct. 1, 1983, to Sept. 30, 1984.

Average annual marketings between Oct. 1, 1980 through Sept. 30, 1982, will be the producer's base marketings, Rank said.

Acceptable documentation of milk marketings are payment receipts or statements from milk handlers that show both the amount of milk sold each month during the base period and the upcoming refund period.

Receipts for the refund period should also show the amount of money deducted for USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) to help offset the cost of the milk support program.

Producers who sell milk directly to consumers should provide the county office with sales records and cancelled checks as proof of marketings and the amount paid to CCC.

Rank said that producers may establish their bases at ASCS offices any time during the marketing year. They may file applications for 1982-83 marketing year refunds from Oct. 1, 1983 through Dec. 31, 1983.

Applications for the full 1983-84 marketing year may be filed between Oct. 1, 1984 and Dec. 31, 1984. The amount refunded will be the amount the producer paid to CCC in excess of the first, nonrefundable, 50-cent deduction.

If they wish, producers may request an advance of 60 percent of the refundable deduction paid during the first 6 months of the 1983-84 marketing year any time on or after April 1, 1984.

Producers requesting this advance must furnish pertinent milk marketing records and certify that the required 8.4 percent reduction in marketings will be made for the entire marketing year.

Both the milk marketing deductions and dairy refund program are authorized by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1982. These actions have been taken to reduce milk production and to reduce cost of the dairy price support program, Rank said.

CCC expects to purchase more than 16 million pounds during the 1983-84 marketing year.

1984 WHEAT PROGRAM

Pearl River and Hancock County farmers who participate in the 1984 Wheat Acreage Reduction Program will be eligible for target price protection at $4.45 per bushel, price support loans at $3.30 per bushel and payment-in-kind at 75 percent of the program yield, according to Gennin.

Recently announced by USDA, the 1984 Wheat Program contains a 30 percent acreage reduction requirement and a 10 to 20 percent PIK option for farmers who divert additional land. It does not contain advance deficiency payments. The signup period begins Jan. 16 and ends Feb. 24.

Gennin said program participants will be required to limit their 1984 wheat planted acreage to more than 70 percent of the farm's wheat base, and devote to conservation uses eligible cropland equal to 42.86 percent of their planted and payment-in-kind acres.

"The 1984 acreage base will be the average of the acres planted and considered planted to wheat in 1982 and 1983."

Farmers participating in the PIK program will not receive wheat from Commodity Credit Corporation stocks. Producers who sign up in the program will agree to use their outstanding reserve loans first and regular price support loans second, and those with no outstanding loans will agree to harvest for PIK.

Eagles Sans Reggie open against Spiders

The first chapter of "University of Southern Mississippi Football Sans Reggie Collier" unfolds here Saturday night as coach Jim Carmody's 1983 Golden Eagles host the University of Richmond Spiders.

It will be the 606th game in history and the star of the 67th season of intercollegiate football for USM. Carmody is the university's 14th head coach since the beginning in 1912.

Collier, the brilliant all-American quarterback from Biloxi (d'Iberville) who sparked the Eagles to 25 wins over a three-season span, is now a professional.

Junior Robert Duckworth, Collier's second cousin and hailing from Biloxi High School, is the likely quarterback starter for the Eagles. He'll definitely get the call if injuries don't necessitate a switch to red-shirt freshman Andrew Anderson. Next in line would probably be bonafide freshman Tommy Compton, the younger Alabama's sportswriters honored as last year's "Mr. Football."

But it will likely be Duckworth and he'll head up a veteran offense that will include flashy fullback Sam DeJarnette, a junior from Selma, Ala., who was the national fifth-leading running back in 1982. He's the only player to lead the nation in rushing in 1982, with 2,044 yards. DeJarnette, who was named the "Mr. Football" of the state, is a two-time All-American and a two-time SEC champion. He's also a two-time SEC champion. He's also a two-time SEC champion. He's also a two-time SEC champion.

starters from tackle to tackle. They are center, Steve Carmody of Hattiesburg; guards, Fred Richards of Bessemer, Ala., and Randy Campbell of Vicksburg; and tackles, Glen Howe of New Albany and Dwayne Massey of Jackson.

The "Nasty Bunch," as the defense is known, isn't as loaded with vets as the offense, but quality leadership is provided by such stalwarts as nose guard, Jerlad Baylis and tackle, Richard Byrd, both of Jackson; linebacker, Greg Kelly, an old prep mate of Collier's at d'Iberville; senior free safety, Bud Brown of DeKalb; and senior cornerback, Bruce Miller of Ackerman.

A pair of younger lettermen out of Vicksburg, junior Scott Allen and sophomore Bobo Harris, complete a sound secondary for the "Nasty Bunch," and much is expected from front-line youngsters Willie B. Moore of Noxapater, Kip Smith of Vicksburg, Fred Molden of Moss Point, Fred Baskin of Meridian, Chris Jackson of Theodore, Ala., and Greg Dampier of Mendenhall. Other veteran linebackers are Greg Haeusler of Destin, Fla., Rod O'Barr of Birmingham, Ala., and Chal Pace of New Orleans, La. Kickoff time Saturday is 7 p.m.

The W to open volleyball season against Southern Mississippi University for Women's volleyball team will launch its 1983-84 season on the road Sept. 8 with a match against the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

The opening match is one of approximately 15 regular-season contests and four tournaments on this year's schedule.

One of the highlights of the season is the MUW Invitational Tournament Sept. 23-24. Each year the tournament attracts top teams from the Southeast to the Pohl Physical Education Assembly Building on campus.

MUW coach Samye Johnson will be adding several new players to her list of spikers this season. Volleyball recruits are Janelle Bollinger, Celeste Waquestack and Lisa Duncan, all of Metairie, La., and Rhonda Traylor of Tupelo. MUW's complete volleyball schedule for the 1983-84 season is:

Date	Opponent	Place
September 8	University of Southern Mississippi	Hattiesburg
9-10	University of New Orleans Tournament	New Orleans, La.
9	Lamar University
10	University of New Orleans

USM to host SE theater meeting

The University of Southern Mississippi will host the Southeastern Fall Meeting of the U.S. Institute for Theatre Technology on Sept. 9-10.

Over 100 representatives of university theatre programs and regional professional theatres from Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia will attend.

discussion including university administrators, architects and theatre directors on theatre architecture and renovation.

Other workshops will be on shoemaking and prosthetic make-up. Registration will be from 8-10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 9 in the PAC. For additional information contact the Department of Theatre and Dance at 288-4994.

The USITT fall business meeting will be in the Performing Arts Center auditorium. Also scheduled in the PAC are six workshops which may be of interest to area little theatre groups.

Two of the workshops will be presented by Rosco, a major theatrical materials supplier, on the research and development methods and application of their materials.

A workshop on computer applications in theatre is scheduled as well as a panel

HEADACHES DISAPPEAR

This fine man came to our clinic complaining of a persistent headache which had stayed with him for nine weeks. He goes to bed with it and wakes up in the morning with it. This seems to dull it somewhat, but he can't feel that it is still there. Others who examined him could find no reason for the condition. We made a complete spinal analysis including x-rays, and the clinical evidence obtained showed the cause to be a slipped spinal bone at the base of his head. With gentle, relaxing, corrective spinal adjustments, the headaches he used to have are now an experience of the past. He is so grateful, he recommends us highly to all of his friends. We appreciate this and are happy that we could help him.

Scott Favre, quarterback and safety; and Gary Fricke, tight end and line backer. The Hawks open the season Friday against county rival St. Stanislaus. Kickoff is 7:30 p.m. at Hawk Stadium. (Echo staff photo by Edgar Perez)

Crucial mistakes may decide HNC-St. Stanislaus opener

By EDGAR PEREZ

High school football teams are predestined to make mistakes on the playing field, a lot of them especially in the early part of a season before the team has settled in to working well together.

And the winner of the season opener this year between the Hancock North Central Hawks and St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chows Friday night will likely 1982 season when HNC compiled a not-too-impressive 4-6 record.

Favre's bayou bootleggers will depend heavily on Lydell Curry who could develop this year into one of the top backs in the Deep South Conference.

Quarterback Scott Favre who replaced the injured Mark Santalla early in the season last year, thus picking up unexpected but valuable ing as an independent this year.

Also prior to the Stone encounter, the Hawks will meet Pearl River Central at Hawk Stadium in an extra-scheduled game which will not count in the conference standings.

HNC had scheduled St. Martin for Sept. 9 but the Yellow Jackets cancelled. PRC also found themselves idle on that PRC and HNC will meet again in Carriere Nov. 4 in the final regular season game which will count in the DSC tally.

Also on the Hawk schedule are Pass Christian there Sept. 23, Homecoming against East Central Sept. 30, St. John there Oct. 6, Vancleave at home Oct. 14, Mercy Cross there Oct. 21, and Bay St. Louis at home Oct. 28.

Hawk Quarterback Scott Favre finds an opening in intrasquad action Friday during be the team which makes the fewest mistakes.

Hawk Head Coach Irwin Favre believes the winner Friday night will be the squad which tallies the fewest 'crucial mistakes' that night.

"Fumbling the ball on the 50-yard-line is one thing but if you turn over possession inside your own 20 you're in some serious trouble," Favre feels.

St. Stanislaus has dominated the rivalry between the two Hancock County schools which began in 1956, but Favre feels Friday night's contest is anybody's ballgame.

"It will be a rough game—it always is," the Hawk mentor allowed.

"There's no way to guess on the outcome of this one, sometimes you think you're ready and you go out there and find out you're not," Favre added.

"We'll be out there to do the best job we can," he added.

The Hawks' outlook for Friday is bolstered by ten returning seniors who saw con-experience in field generalship, will be set to lead the Hawks in a darkhorse role as an early favorite to win the conference.

The other seniors ready for action Friday are Gary Fricke of Lakeshore at tight end, Mark Jackson of White Cypress at fullback, Steve Weisden of Lakeshore and Billy Davis of Pearlington, both at guard.

Also, Brian Ladner of Kiln, Steve McQueen of Lakeshore, and Mickey Klehm of Kiln, all at tackle; and Darin Ladner of Dedeaux at split end.

Favre noted the Deep South Conference this year 'is so balanced anybody could win on a given Friday night.'

"A lot of people are picking Stone County to win but Bay St. Louis is going to be tough also," the Hawk chief feels.

The Hawks will travel to Stone County Sept. 15 for their first conference game.

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club hosting Lipton Cup event

Basil Kennedy, 1983 Lipton Committee general chairman has announced that Bay-Waveland Yacht Club will host the 64th Gulf Yachting Association Championship for the Sir Thomas Lipton Challenge Cup on Sept. 3, 4, and 5.

In this event each club in the Gulf Yachting Association is allowed to enter four skippers who each sail one race only.

The winner is determined by the adding the scores of the individual skippers and the club with the best overall record wins.

The winning club than has the right to host the regatta the following year. Bay-Waveland won the regatta which is sailed in club-owned Flying Scot sailboats last year in Pensacola.

Twenty-three clubs have announced their intention to participate. The Gulf Yachting Association includes 27 yacht clubs from St. Petersburg, Fla. to Lake Charles, La.

The sailing events will be preceded Saturday morning by the semi-annual meetings of the G.Y.A. Board of Directors and Flying Scot Chairmen. The first race is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

New Pass coach believes in no frills football

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Pass Christian High School's new head football coach plans to strengthen the relatively small Pirate team with no frills training and game tactics.

Kenneth McKinney began working as the Pirate head coach just three weeks ago. He replaced Bob Lumpkin who apparently resigned during the summer.

McKinney, who comes from Stevenson High School in Stevenson, Ala. and is a Corinth native, is beginning his 26th year as a football coach.

"We run basic football and are not real fancy. I don't believe in fancy plays," he states.

The head coach is assisted by long-time Pass offensive and defensive line coach Larry McGill and a new assistant, Gary (Bo) Wright, who replaces Joe Campbell as coach of the defensive secondaries and offensive receivers.

Wright is a Vicksburg native and graduated last spring from Delta State University.

McKinney credits McGill with 'keeping the team together in the summer with a strength-building weight lifting program.'

McGill says the Pirate line, with an average player weight of about 190 pounds, is a strong but 'average' squad.

"We're going to be competitive with everybody. We're sound up front in the line and with a little luck we'll beat some people," he states.

McKinney and McGill are both concerned about the small number of Pirate players this year—about 21 compared to last year's roster of almost 40.

They speculate the decrease in players could have resulted from either students not meeting the school's relatively rigid academic requirements, a more rigorous and regimented practice schedule or new coaches.

McKinney reports the Pass Christian Municipal Separate School District requires students in extracurricular activities to pass three out of four 'major subjects'.

"This school has the best academic requirements out of any school I've been in during the last 25 years," he states.

The head coach says Pass Christian's high academic requirements are in line with his coaching philosophy of 'winning, but if we're losing we're going to have class, pride and strive to be better every day.'

"I consider it an honor just to be associated with this school. Pass Christian is setting a precedent academically in Mississippi," McKinney states.

FRIDAY NIGHT

PIRATES, WARRIORS

CLASH

Friday night the Pirates journey to d'Iberville High School Stadium to battle the powerhouse Warrior team.

"We're opening the season with a tough one at d'Iberville. They've got tradition, but we're going to try to get a tradition started here," McKinney states.

He reports the Warriors will field a three-season veteran quarterback against the Pirate rookie quarterback, Joey Rogers.

But McKinney feels Rogers is in good shape for the Friday game as well as several other outstanding Pirates which include tackle and linebacker Alan Dedeaux, guard and defensive tackle Herbert Dedeaux, guard and linebacker Chris Vincent, offensive and defensive tackle Anthony Woods, center and linebacker Quintin Brown, tailbacks Winston Ausmer and Tony Howell, and tight ends and linebackers Eldridge Belvin and Rodney Conway.

"Those guys are doing a good job," McKinney reports. McGill says he's relying on Brown, who is a senior, to lead the offensive line which except for the center consists of juniors.

Kickoff time Friday night is 7:30 p.m.

Rock-A-Chaws face HNC Friday

By JUNE M. HEYDT
"We're at the place I want the team to be," said Vernon Powell, coach of the Rock-A-Chaws from St. Stanislaus.

"The players starting this year are the same ones that started last year, but they will have had one year of experience behind them, more weight, and they're getting smarter," said Powell.

The Rock-A-Chaws take on Hancock North Central this Friday night in the first game of the 1983 season.

Powell said, "Hancock is our rival. In order for us to be in the ballgame we're going to have to stop Lydell Curry and Scott Pavre. Curry is a real good running back. He was the best athlete we faced last year. We feel that's going to be the key."

The team has a lot of sophomores and juniors this year, according to Powell.

Five seniors will be starting. Matt Scardino will be the starting quarterback if the doctor confirms that the stitches he had in his foot this summer are healed enough to play, said Powell.

If Scardino can't start then Casey Witman, a second string quarterback and first string tight end, will start as quarterback.

"I think we have a pretty good team," said Powell. "We're improving on our mistakes from last year."

Nineteen players are coming back this year. Last year Stanislaus was 1-9.

Dove hunting opens Saturday

Saturday, Sept. 3, the opening of Mississippi's first of three dove seasons is just around the corner. It also marks the beginning of the fall hunting season.

State dove shooters will have 70 days of hunting this year divided into three seasons. The first one will continue through Oct. 2.

The second season begins

Oct. 15 and ends Nov. 6, and the third season opens Dec. 24 and closes Jan. 9. During each season the entire state will be open for dove hunting. There will be no zone lines.

State conservation enforcement officials are reminding hunters that doves are migratory birds. Shotgunners must be plugged and incapable of holding more than three shells at one loading.

As in past years, dove hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset. The bag limit is 12 and the possession limit is 24, with no possession limit on opening day of any season.

Resident hunters 16 through 65, unless otherwise exempt, and all non-resident hunters must have a valid hunting license on their person before going afield after doves.

A resident small game hunting license cost $6. The least expensive non-resident license for hunting doves is the seven-day small game hunting license for $20.

Contact the Department of Wildlife Conservation in Jackson or a local conservation officer for specific license requirements.

Telephone company urges hunters to avoid shooting lines, cables, & equipment

September means the beginning of hunting season to Mississippi sportsmen. But the opening of dove season on September 3, also means some unique problems for South Central Bell customers. These problems are the result of hunters shooting area telephone lines and cables.

Damaged lines hurt everyone. Customers are without service, the company has expensive and time consuming repairs, and sometimes the party responsible for the damage gets the bill.

"It's impossible to estimate the loss of business and inconvenience to our customers as a result of these accidents," said Don Roberts, district manager, South Central Bell. "We feel we can eliminate this problem if we make hunters aware of it."

"So, please take careful aim before shooting, making sure there are no cables or telephone lines in your sights and keep the phones working," Roberts urges.

BAYS registration continues

Bay Area Youth Soccer has completed its initial registration drive for the 1983/4 soccer season. Just contact one of the club officers and you will be provided with a registration form. The beauty of soccer is that no prior experience is necessary to begin having fun and enjoying the thrill of non-stop action. And due to the playing times there is no conflict with any school athletic programs. We look forward to seeing all of you at the soccer games, whether as players or spectators.

Registration remains open, however. Those interested, if birth year is 1965-71, should contact Tom Minton, 255-3210; birth year 1972-73, contact

Paul Raymond, 255-9485; birth year 1974-75, contact Kathy Edwards, 467-0176; birth year 1976-78, contact Gary Grimes, 255-7716; and girls birth years 1965-73, contact Joann Ducan, 533-7981.

The W's Blues to face 24-game cage season

Twenty-four regular-season games and two tournaments will keep the Mississippi University for Women basketball team busy from mid-November to late February. The MUW "Blues" will launch the 1983-84 cage season at the Columbus university with a home tilt against Belhaven College Nov. 12.

Game time is 7 p.m. in the Pohl Physical Education Assembly Building.

Georgia Tech in Atlanta will be the site of the W's first tournament of the season. The Georgia Tech tourney is set Nov. 25-26.

The annual MUW Christmas Tournament will get underway in early December.

heralding the yuletide season on campus. The holiday classic will be held Dec. 23 at the Pohl Physical Education Assembly Building. Teams include Belhaven, Spring Hill, MUW and a team to be announced at a later date.

MUS's '83-'84 team will be minus four players from last year, including record-setter Brenda Satcher, a 6-2 center from Vossburg. During last season, Satcher set several school records, including the single-season scoring standard when she tallied 642 points for a 25.7 points-per-game average.

MUW basketball coach Samye Johnson, however, has added six new players to her roster for the coming season.

Recruits are Vicki Burton and Lela McDonald, both of Ridgeland, Lori Carter of Meridian, Carolyn Holliday of Hamilton, Glynnis Shirley of New Hope and Holly Thompson of Gadsden, Ala.

MUW's athletic teams will have a new name this season.

The "Blues" was chosen as the name for athletic teams this spring by a committee composed of MUW faculty and staff members, alumnae and students. A new mascot, "Ody" Owl, will help cheer on teams this coming year at The W.

The complete 1983-84 schedule at MUW is:

Tigers, Tomcats clash in DSC showdown

By RANDY PONDER
The Bay High School Tigers will open the 1983 football season against the Stone County Tomcats at A.L. May Stadium in Perkinston Friday night. The two teams tied for the conference championship last year.

Hawk, Tiger Ninth Graders open grid season tonight

By ELLIS CUEVAS
The ninth grade Hancock North Central Hawks will open their 1983 season hosting Harrison Central's Red Rebels tonight in Hawk stadium.

Joe Shaw, Hawk coach said Wednesday, "Last year's game ended in a scoreless tie, in a game played at Harrison Central, and we expect Thursday night's contest to be very competitive."

The young Hawks have only returning starter, Brett Favre at quarterback, who played last year as an eighth grader, according to Shaw.

Shaw lists his starting offensive team as Favre, quarterback; Norris Chaisson, fullback; Charles Burton, fullback; Johnny Robinson, wingback; Cecil Necaise, center; William Moran and Jim Eastridge, guards; Donald Anderson and Lonnie Deschamps, tackles; Troy

King, tight end; and Delano Lewis, split end.

The squad of 30 members includes ten eighth graders, said Shaw who is assisted by Terry Payne.

The kick-off is scheduled for 7 p.m. with admission at the gate for adults at $1.50 and $1 for students.

The ninth grade Hawks have a schedule of nine games for the season.

Shaw and Payne also coach the seventh and eighth grade football squad which opens play Tuesday at 5 p.m. against Bay High in Tiger stadium, Bay St. Louis.

Also Thursday, the Bay High Tiger Ninth Graders will open their 1983 season against Stone County. Kickoff in that contest which will initiate the Tigers' defense of their 1982 deep South Conference Championship, will be at 7 p.m.

outstanding 1982 season. "Harold has the ability to become one of, if not the best back in the conference," coach Smith noted.

Johnson is a two year starter at tight end and is termed a "solid" player.

Sophomore Jeffrey Smith is expected to start at the quarterback position. "Jeffrey had a fine year on the ninth grade team. He has maturity and poise and great potential. He has performed in practice as if he had 3 years of experience."

David McIver has moved from quarterback to running back. "We feel this move will help strengthen our team. David is a good player."

Junior Jerry Head has also switched positions, going from guard to center.

Newcomer Bert Daigre, a junior from New Orleans, arrived "like a gift" according to Smith. "We feel Bert will be an outstanding player." He will play offensive and defensive tackle.

Willie Harvey, running back, is also expected to see a lot of action. "Willie is very quick with excellent speed."

Darren Smith, voted most valuable defensive back on the team last year, will again start at the cornerback slot.

Senior Tim Proulx, slated to be a starting guard, injured his knee this week in practice and will be out for at least two weeks. Tracey McCraney will probably fill the vacated spot.

Other starters will include sophomore Joe Summers, linebacker-fullback; sophomore Stace McCraney, linebacker; senior Steve Goscinsky, wide receiver; senior Eugene Ramond, offensive tackle; junior Kevin James, guard; sophomore Willie Lewis, free safety; running back; and Thomas Antoine at defensive tackle.

Smith noted that everyone on the team could and would play during the year. "We have always had a depth problem. You lose a number of good ball players each year to graduation so experience is important and the only way to get it is by giving everyone a chance to play."

Stone County has a new head coach, Floyd Davis, who comes from Southwest Junior College in Summit.

"We really don't have a game plan as such," Smith stated of Friday's game with the Tomcats. "We'll just have to kind of play it by ear. See what they're going to try and then adjust accordingly."

"We feel we can move the ball, we've worked as hard as possible in practice, we think we're ready. The boys have a good positive attitude."

Bay High has won the last two meetings between the two schools. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

PRC to open against East Mississippi

Pearl River College will open its '83 football season at home this Saturday night against North Division foe East Mississippi.

After almost two weeks of two-a-day practices, which included countless wind sprints, tackling drills and running of defensive plays against a "make believe enemy," the Wildcats are ready to hit on someone in another colored jersey.

"I guess we are as ready as we can get for the first game," said J. C. Arban, the Wildcats' head coach. "Our timing is pretty good, we've been hitting each other extremely well, and only a couple of players are on the injury list. I guess it's time to bring on East Mississippi."

The Wildcats have played East Mississippi only three times during the past decade. In 1976, the last time the Wildcats won the state championship, PRC won 24-8 at Columbus and in '77 East Mississippi returned the favor 27-13 at the Doble Holden Stadium.

Last year, the Wildcats opened its season on a Thursday night against East Mississippi in Scooba. In that game, the PRC wishbone sputtered and the defense bent, but the PRC team still walked away with a 13-10 opening win. Last year's game was the Wildcats' 22 victory over the Lions, against only seven defeats and two ties. But it was no polished affair as the Wildcats fumbled seven times, losing it three times, and was intercepted twice.

Only a big defensive effort by freshman Tommy Hillman and Richard Hughes saved the game for the Wildcats. Late in the game, with East Mississippi on the half yard line and trailing by only three points, Hillman slammed the quarterback loose of the ball and Hughes fell on it at the three.

Arban said East Mississippi has 22 players returning out of a squad of 66. Under Coach David Bradberry, the Lions wound up with a 3-3 conference mark and a 4-6 overall ledger last year. However, they lost four games by three points or less.

"They are a well-coached team," Arban said. "They really get after you on defense. We'll have to be ready to play ball."

Defensively, the Wildcats look strong. They have a lot of experience and they hit hard. At the end positions are sophomores Shannon Ramsay of Piquette and Jerome Dean of Ruston, La.

Defensive tackles will include Richard Lofton (211) of Bassfield and Steve Odom (250) of North Forrest.

Point of interest at this time is the fact that Richard Hughes of Lumberton and Jeff Waits of Oak Grove will be held out of the first game because both were injured in the second game last season, and the Mississippi Junior College Commission ruled that for them to be eligible (Hughes, a freshman; Waits, a sophomore) they must be held out of the first ballgame.

Noseguard is Clay Squires of Satsuma, Ala. Squires started several games last season and the 239-pound defensive artist will also action at that right tackle position. Monster is Leo Watts, a sophomore from Hattiesburg; however, Jeff Ashley of Columbia will see action and may even start at that position. The Wildcats' defensive secondary is made up of sophomores. Deneal McLenore of Lumberton is at the left corner, while Benji Kidd of Hattiesburg is at the right corner. Ben Robertson of East Marion is at safety.

The Wildcat linebackers are Tommy Hillman (230) of Petal and Johnny Runnels (205) of Piquette, but Doug Brewton (212) of Columbia and Jack Kilpatrick (198) of Satsuma, Ala., are waiting in the wings.

Mike Horn (250) of Gretna, La., will also play a lot at the left defensive tackle position. Donald Kittrell (250) of Forrest County will also play tackle if a nagging leg injury is well by game time.

On offense the Wildcats will have sophomore Doug Norris of Oak Grove starting at quarterback, but any one of three freshmen may see action. The first year signal callers include Guy Wimberly of Oak Grove, Daren Brock of Lumberton, La., and Chip Lofton of Columbia.

The starting backfield is sophomore-laden. Richard Hathorn (197) of Bassfield is at one tailback and Bryan Maxie (190) of North Forrest is at the other. The fullback is Johnny Matthews (195) of West Marion.

Sophomore Scott Senner of Gretna, La., but a graduate of St. Stanislaus, is also a twin starter at the fullback slot. Senner will also handle the punting chores.

At center is Kyle Dossett (218) of Piquette. He'll be flanked by Kevin Russell (230) of East Marion and Denis Coriel (224) of Lafayette. Coriel may not start for the Wildcats because he is nursing an injured knee at this time. His progression will be monitored this week.

If Coriel can't start, Lofton will start on offense, instead of at the defensive tackle position. The tackles will include sophomores Greg Harris (237) of Lafayette on the right side and James Adams (224) of Gonzales, La. on the left.

James Jenkins (225) of Petal will start at tightend while L. C. Hopkins of Hattiesburg is at wideout. Hopkins will also double at tailback.

"I think we are ready to hit someone other than ourselves," Arban said. "It's going to be a good game. I hope all our Wildcat fans will come out and support us."

Captains for this week's game are tight end James Jenkins, noseguard Clay Squires and fullback Johnny Matthews.

PEARL RIVER WILDCATS—When the Pearl River College Wildcats take on East Mississippi at home Saturday these former Bay High Tigers will be on the '83 'Cat squad. Mike Proulx (39) is a wide receiver and David Palmisano (12) is a cornerback-wide receiver.

Bandaides greet director

Open House was held Monday by the Tiger Pride Bandaides for William H. Ellis, new Tiger Pride band director.

Ellis resides in Long Beach and from 1972-74 was director at West Junior High School, Gulfport.

From 1977-78 he was band director at Baker Schools, Mobile, Ala.

From 1979-1980 he was employed with Overall Enterprises, North Hollywood, Calif., involving music preparation and music editing. Ellis was music director for Gulfport Little Theatre for such musicals as "The Music Man" and "Appalause."

A short business meeting was conducted during the open house. The next regular meeting of the Tiger Pride Bandaides will be Sept. 19, 7:30 p.m. at the band hall on Carroll Avenue.

All parents of junior and senior high band members and those interested in the band are invited to attend.

Leo Seal to discuss China tour

'Inside Mainland China' will be the topic to be discussed by Leo Seal before Friends of the Library when that organization meets Thursday, Sept. 1 in the Bay St. Louis Library.

"Because of the wide spread interest in China at this time we extend an invitation to all interested persons to attend this meeting," said Joe Pilet who serves as coordinator for that group.

Seal who serves as president and chief executive officer for the Hancock Banks and was singled out for Hancock County's Outstanding Citizen Award and Distinguished American Award, returned recently from an investigative tour of China's mainland which is the third largest country in the world, more populous than any other nation.

China's written history goes back some 3,500 years. China is said to be the world's oldest continuing civilization.

Seal is expected to make comments on China's economy, land use and customs and give some highlights on what that ancient country is planning to meet the basic needs of the ever-growing populations.

"Our Friends of the Library monthly meetings start promptly at 7:30 p.m. and we ask those who attend to use the Ulman Avenue entrance where there is ample parking space," explained Mrs. Pilet who added the doors are open by 7 p.m. for the convenience of those who wish to arrive a bit ahead of schedule in order to browse around the library.

Following the program members of the Junior Auxiliary will host a punch service in the Crawford Memorial Room with Mrs. John Scaffidi presiding at this function.

FRIEND OF EDUCATION—Professional educators of the Pass Christian Municipal Separate School System greet the state's best-known Friend of Education, Governor William Winter. Pass teachers attending a recent session-opening faculty meeting at Pass High at which the governor was featured speaker, include Mrs. Sherry Ponder of Waveland, center, and Mrs. Beth John of Pass Christian. The governor said he uses the Pass School System and its locally supported kindergarten as an example throughout the state of the kind of progress which must be made in education if the state is to pull out of its traditionally low economic status. Student leaders call for increase in high school requirements

Many adults have been calling for tougher high school classes, and now America's student leaders seem to share that opinion.

Students attending the National Association of Student Councils (NASC) conference this summer approved of stiffer high school graduation requirements by a 5-1 margin. When asked about the National Commission on Excellence in Education's recommendation that they be strengthened.

"We believe that this is the first time student opinion has been sought about any of the Commission's recommendations," said Terry Giroux, director, student activities, national Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), the sponsor of NASC. "While the students attending this conference were not a cross section of all American secondary school students, they are a cross section of student leaders."

In looking at high school graduation requirements, the Commission defined five subjects as comprising the "new basics": English, mathematics, science, social studies, and computer science. It recommended that to graduate from high school all students should take four years of English, three years each of science, mathematics and social science, and one-half year of computer science. It also suggested that college-bound students take two years of a foreign language.

The NASC students supported this recommendation by a 679 to 123 vote. The reasons ranged from the need to keep America strong to the fact that students need this type of program to prepare for college and work.

"Education is the key to a strong America," pointed out Karin J. Hanson, a junior at Conestoga High School in Pennsylvania.

Kim Budke, student council vice president at Helena (Mont.) High School, simply put it, "No one can learn too much!"

The purpose of public schools is to educate people, according to Lloyd W. Brown, student council president of Bookfield East High School in Wisconsin. "A person entering today's society needs these essentials to function."

Many of the students recognize that America's schools can be made stronger.

"I feel that some of the students are getting too far away from the basics and are taking simple or unneeded classes that leave them totally unprepared for college and life," reported Margaret Harder, student council secretary, Oologah (Okla.) High School.

First Woman—Carolyn Elizabeth Ferrell daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Ferrell of Bay St. Louis and the late James Ferrell, recently graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Southern Mississippi. She has accepted a graduate assistantship in management in the master of business administration program at USM for the coming year, and is the first woman to be chosen as graduate assistant in the department of management. She will share her duties with four other assistants.

Gieker (advisor), David Malley, Tom Conway, Freda Ladner, Chris Arthur, and Billy Dedeaux (advisor).

Young missionaries aid remote Mexican villagers

A group of CYO members traveled from Hancock County July 21-30 to seek out and aid the poor in remote villages near Saltillo, Mexico.

Some 31 young adults and advisors from OLC-CYO, Bay St. Louis; Sacred Heart CYO, Dedeaux; St. Clare CYO, Waveland; and St. Charles CYO, Picayune resided with Father Patrick Quinn, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Saltillo.

The areas where the group worked were called ranchos.

These villages are from 1-8 hours away from the rectory in Saltillo. While in the ranchos, the group distributed hundreds of pounds of beans, numerous items of clothing and hundreds of sewing kits.

Nurses administered first aid and distributed medicine.

Father Quinn ministers to 53 ranchos each month, celebrating Mass, performing weddings, baptisms, and blessings of gravesites if someone has died since the priest's last visit.

He also serves three parishes in the city of Saltillo and provides throughout the summer lodging for many youth groups that participate in the summer youth program.

Each participating CYO works year round in an effort to make each year's trip a bigger success.

Monetary contributions this year amounted to more than $4,000.

HNC teachers participating in improvement program

Faculty of Hancock North Central will be participating in a weekly effort to increase their repertoire of professional skills.

The program of professional learning is designed to improve teacher performance and increase effectiveness at virtually every level of individual and school activity.

D. E. Hillman, HNC principal, said, "Every week of the school year, the entire faculty of Hancock North Central will be engaged in weekly study sessions to improve their teaching skills."

classroom management."

The professional development program, called "The Master Teacher," addresses professional attitudes and techniques each teacher should have to operate effectively and put students' needs first.

It also offers practical suggestions concerning work as a classroom teacher and gives concrete recommendations for working with students, parents and colleagues.

The program's purpose is to help teachers become more effective in their classrooms.

Teacher program gives teachers something new and practical each week which they can apply in their daily work with students.

Third, the program helps remind teachers of the things they already know but may forget to apply in working with students and getting the work of the school accomplished.

"All studies reveal conclusively that it takes a qualty teacher to give children a quality education," Hillman said.

"The simple truth is that desks, books, and classrooms don't teach students — teachers do. That's why the teachers of Hancock North Central are doing everything they can to improve their individual teaching skills," the principal explained.

SCOUTING MADE FUN—Girl Scouting made Mississippi history fun for Shannon Mond, Bay-Waveland Troop. She is kneeling beside a replica of an ante-bellum home she built for the Spring Girl Scout mall event.

Scouts learn by sharing skills

Girl Scouting opens a new world to girls ages six through 17. It creates new roles for girls and allows them to explore new options. Based on a foundation of ethical values it is an opportunity for a girl to grow in a program of openness, freedom and trust.

For the Brownie, Girl Scouting holds the thrill of belonging to something on her own for the first time. She also finds an adult friend, her leader, who is interested in her not because of her family but because she is a Girl Scout.

Junior Girl Scouts choose to learn about things beyond their school subjects. Anything from repairs around the house to customs of different nationalities around the world or in their own neighborhood.

This is learning the Girl Scout does because she wants to.

For teen-aged Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts, the world opens up. They can sample career options. Girl Scouts at this level practice leadership in community projects and other group activities of their own, as well as working with younger Girl Scouts.

Teen-aged Girl Scouts even travel to national and international events.

Like girl members, Girl Scout adults have found a new world through sharing their interests and skills. By helping girls participate in special projects and activities such as canoeing, photography, drama, and dance, adults can open new worlds to girls and can see these skills in a new light through the eyes of the Girl Scouts they lead.

For more information about how you and your daughter can join Girl Scouts, call 467-5217.

Registration opens today on Carey's Coast campus

Registration for the fall term at William Carey College on the Coast will be Sept. 1 from 2 until 6 p.m. in the Student Center.

Classes begin Sept. 5 and end Nov. 12. Registration for day classes will continue through Sept. 15.

Courses in Biblical studies, business administration, education, health and physical education, history and the social sciences, mathematics, nursing and theatre and speech will be offered.

New scholarship programs have been made available to Coast students. Information about financial aid programs may be obtained from a counselor at the main office of the college between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Carey College will also offer an expanded data processing curriculum and new programs in areas of pre-med, pre-dental, and pre-vet.

There will be a total of 21 graduate courses during the fall leading to the master of education and master of business administration. Graduate students may register on Sept. 1 or at the beginning of the first class meeting during the week of Sept. 5-9.

Additional information may be obtained from the registrar's office, 1856 Beach Drive, Gulfport, 896-4455.

SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE'S NOTICE
WHEREAS, on March 1, 1982, Charles S. Loftin executed a Deed of Trust in favor of Ann A. Wooten, Trustee for the use and benefit of Raymond O. Coleman and wife, A. Kay Coleman, or survivor, which Deed of Trust is on file and of record in the office of the Clerk of Hancock County, at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, in Deed of Trust Record Book 240, at Pages 702-704, hereinafter referred to as "the Deed";

WHEREAS, the legal holders of said Deed of Trust and the Note secured thereby, substituted Lucien M. Gex, Jr., as Trustee thereon, as authorized by the terms thereof by instrument recorded in the office of the aforesaid Chancery Clerk, in Book 250, at Page 672 thereof; and

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust, and having been requested by the legal holders of the indebtedness secured and described by said Deed of Trust to do, notice is hereby given that I, Lucien M. Gex, Jr., Substituted Trustee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me in said Deed of Trust, will offer for sale and sell at public sale and outcry to the highest and best bidder for cash, during legal hours (being between the hours of 11 o'clock A.M. and 4 o'clock P.M.), at the main front door of the County Courthouse of Hancock County at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, on the 15th day of September, 1983, the following described land and property, being the same land and property described in said Deed of Trust, situated in Hancock County, Mississippi, to-wit:

Beginning at the Southwest corner of Lot 48, Block 8, Waveland Terrace Subdivision, Second Ward, Waveland, Mississippi, said point of beginning being further identified as the point of intersection of the line between Lots 39 and 40 of the above-mentioned subdivision on the North line of Coleman Avenue; thence southeasterly along the North line of the aforesaid Coleman Avenue a distance of 42.5 feet to a point; thence North 45° East on a line perpendicular to Coleman Avenue a distance of 216 feet to an iron stake set on the North line of the above-mentioned Lot No. 40; thence northerly along the North line of Lot No. 40 a distance of 52.5 feet to an iron stake set at the northeast corner of the above-mentioned Lots 39 and 40; a distance of 216 feet to the place of beginning. Said land being the Northwest 1/4 of Section 25, Township 7 South, Range 15 West, and East of Highway 604 and Highway 607 to the South Side of Hancock County Port and Harbor, is heretofore owned and restricted as a Wildlife Management Area. Hunting will be allowed by permit only.

These lands have been placed under management programs for wildlife and timber. Managed controlled hunting is necessary to provide continuous and productive wildlife populations and enhance habitat.

Permits and maps may be obtained from selected local grocery stores and sporting goods stores by August 15. A fee will be charged for the issuance of these permits.

EXOTIC ANIMALS

Some of the best feature stories from the past few months of "Farmweek" editions will be rebroadcast for a special Labor Day program to be aired at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 2, on Mississippi ETV.

One story is about exotic animals—including ostriches, zebras, llamas, emus and marmosets—that are raised by a 24-year-old Tishomingo County man.

The other stories cover a mostly vegetables and meat produced on nearby farms; a farm where racehorses are bred; and a Mississippi food processing plant that presses chicken meat into various shapes for a popular fast-food restaurant chain.

"Farmweek" always includes weather forecasts, production tips, farm and market reports and a calendar of upcoming events. The series is co-produced by Mississippi ETV and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

King concert at Ole Miss
to open 'Blues Month'

Gov. William Winter will declare September as "Blues Month" in Mississippi in ceremonies before a concert by blues superstar B. B. King Sept. 1 at The University of Mississippi.

"Mississippi has made greater contributions to this folk art than any other state," the governor says in his proclamation. "Undoubtedly the most widely acclaimed blues musician of the present day is a native Mississippian, B. B. King."

The proclamation also recognizes King's donation of his personal 7,000-record collection, much of which will help form the nucleus for the soon-to-be established Ole Miss Blues Archive, a collection of music and related materials expected to make the University a major center for the study and preservation of the blues art form.

Also recognized by Gov. Winter in his proclamation is Living Blues magazine, the world's leading blues publication, which the University begins publishing next month.

University Chancellor Porter L. Fortune Jr. will also take part in the Sept. 1 ceremonies, which will acknowledge the contributions of King, and Jim and Amy O'Neal, a Chicago couple who also have donated their extensive blues music collection to the Ole Miss Blues Archive. The O'Neals founded Living Blues magazine and will remain its editors.

Billed as "An Evening with B. B. King," the concert in the 917-seat Fulton Chapel is being sponsored by the university's Student Programming Board. Tickets are $5 for Ole Miss students and $7 for the general public and are on sale at the Ole Miss Union Central Ticket Office, The University of Mississippi, University, Miss. 38677. For further information, call the ticket office, 601-232-7411.

The pre-concert ceremonies are being planned by the university's Center for the Study of Southern Culture, which has played a major role in creating the blues archive and the university's assuming publication of the magazine.

Dr. Bill Ferris, center director, said those wishing to contribute $200 or more as a "Patron of the Blues" should contact the center. Patrons will receive a complimentary ticket to the concert and a lifetime subscription to Living Blues magazine. Patrons will also be invited to a pre-concert reception for King hosted by Chancellor and Mrs. Fortune at the Fortune home and will receive an invitation to a post-concert party.

This year's concert at the university will be an encore performance for King, who did a benefit performance here in 1979 for Mississippi flood victims. The concert was recorded and released as an album.

Born on a plantation near Indianola, the man who picked cotton in Delta fields as a youth has gone on to become the best-known blues musician in the world. He appears regularly in Las Vegas and Atlantic City clubs, performs numerous other concerts and is a frequent guest on the "Tonight Show" and other television programs.

FUELSUFFICIENCY
Back in 1943 when farmer Alvin Mahrenholz drove three two-inch shallow well points into the ground, connected them together with a manifold, and attached a belt driven pump—some of his neighbors and passers-by thought he had been out in the sun too long.

And when he soon began pumping water on four acres of tomatoes he stopped a lot of traffic on Highway 50 in southern Illinois. Many of those who stopped, observed, and offered opinions on the operation, posed a long-sided consensus that it was not economically feasible.

Today, however, on that same busy highway, Mahrenholz not only operates nine automatic revolving sprinkling systems simultaneously, one of which is a high-pressure, high-capacity system that can produce 100 gallons of water per minute, but he also has a 100-gallon per minute pump system that can produce 100 gallons of water per minute.

won't be "looking over his son's shoulder," and bought out the farm of the late Senator Theodore G. Bilbo in Pearl River County.

At a vigorous 73 years of age he is growing pecans and rye grass and setting out on a private research project to convert sunflower oil into farm fuel.

So convinced is Mahrenholz that farmers can free themselves from total dependency on high cost Arab oil that already he has spent 20 years growing sunflowers, and recently he imported an oilseed oil extractor from India because a successful machine that can be used on individual farms is not now manufactured in the United States.

Mahrenholz, who has been farming in Illinois for 40 years, says he believes that sunflowers will produce more than 100 gallons of oil per acre, and that this oil can be used as a fuel for farm machinery and for home heating.

This descendant of German immigrants has grown and studied sunflowers since 1963, and has visited the region in Canada where most sunflowers are grown.

The innovative farmer is high on the sunflower potential for U.S. farmers because hybrid varieties may be selected so this plant can be produced from the Canadian to Mexican borders and from coast to coast.

When properly produced sunflowers will yield about the same poundage as soybeans per acre, Mahrenholz says, yet they contain almost twice as much oil.

Mahrenholz observes that land that will produce 30 bushels per acre of soybeans will produce 1,000 pounds of sunflower seed yielding more than 700 pounds of oil. This would be believed to produce more than 100 gallons of oil per acre.

"A reduction of total agricultural production by 10 percent would increase the per unit sale price of the remainder by 20 percent, using a formula of a 2 percent increase for a one percent reduction in supply," says Mahrenholz, "which would make home grown fuel almost free of cost and it gets government out of farming."

The Pearl River county farmer believes that special interest groups will not be alienated by the conversion of crops to fuel since sunflowers are not generally grown over the U.S. and therefore would not compete with or replace regular crops.

"Sunflowers have a short growing season and can be planted last, allowing priority to the major food crops."

Mahrenholz would like for the experiment to be conducted on a large scale, and he is now planning to plant 100 acres of sunflowers on his 400-acre farm, which is subject to conventional farming methods.

USM's Carmody eyes Collier's cousin as quarterback replacement

Pre-season question about University of Southern Mississippi football: Golden Eagles After Reggie Collier, How Potent Will They Be?

After all, he was the quarterback who guided them to 25 wins over the past three seasons before moving on to the professional ranks.

When fall practice started Aug. 12, the No. 1 prospect to replace Collier was his second cousin, junior Robert Duckworth, who logged a lot of playing time as a prep star at Biloxi High School, but whose total efforts in two campaigns at USM add up to 19 rushing plays and one pass attempt that fell incomplete.

It's evident he's virtually untested under fire but he did prove to be the "best of the rest" in the spring of 1982 and again in the spring of '83.

There are other questions second-year coach Jim Carmody and his staff were seeking answers to as practice got going.

Who was to take over for wide receivers Marc Means and Don Horn, a departed pair of four-year lettermen?

And for tight end Raymond Powell, another who earned four letters?

And, on the defense, who would replace Tom Tall Tillman at end, Larry Elford, Charlie Jenkins and Mochie Allen as tackles, Mark Carmichael as a linebacker, and Eddie Ray Walker at one of the corners?

And who would be the Eagles' new punter after Bruce Thompson had handled every single kick for four years?

Indeed, it wasn't all "rosy" as the Eagles began preparing to meet the following offensive challenges:

—Matching or bettering last year's 7-4 record;

—Matching or bettering the scoring pace of the '82 Eagles, whose total of 304 points was the highest in 30 years at USM;

—Matching or bettering the total-offense production of last year—4,396 yards, second highest in modern USM history; the rushing offense total of '82—3,131 yards, also second best in modern annals; and the first-down output of '82—240, most ever since records of this statistic have been kept at USM.

There are some big plusses, however. Tailback Sam DeJarnette, with two seasons to go, proved as a sophomore he's a class runner with All-America potential. He was the country's fifth-ranked runner last year. Fullbacks Clemon Terrell and Neal Alexander are capable of providing the other half of a powerful one-two rushing punch striking from behind a veteran front line.

All five interior forwards return, with good size and talent: Center Steve Carmody (6-4, 231), guards Randy Allen (6-3, 245) and Fred Richards (6-2, 259), and tackles Dwayne Massey (6-5, 283) and Glen Howe (6-6, 271).

Any of three top-rated tight ends could be a capable starter. They are seniors Jim Brown and Mike Landrum and sophomore Robert Ray Stallings.

The departure of Means and Horn is eased by the return of race-horse all-star candidate Louis Lipps. He was the club's leading pass catcher with 33 grabs and he was the nation's eighth-leading punt returner with a 12.2 average per run-back.

Place-kicker Steve Clark is back for a third year of contributing to the offense after scoring 139 kicking points in two campaigns. He has tacked on 64 (of 67) extra points and has been good on 25 of 34 field goal efforts.

The major challenge for the defense: Get tougher, quickly. The "rush job" assignment is brought on by the fact the schedule pits the Eagles against three of their '82 conquerors in the first four games. They'll face Richmond, a team they didn't play last year, and then meet Auburn, Louisiana Tech and Auburn, in succession.

While losses were heavy, the Nasty Bunch has back several outstanding players to build around. Nose guard Jerald Baylis, looking toward a banner senior campaign, is one of the best in the nation. Linebacker Greg Kelley, who received a hard-ship ruling following an early-season injury, and junior tackle Richard Byrd, switching from end, are all-star candidates, as is strong safety Bud Brown, a two-time second-team pick on the All-South Independent team.

Byrd's move to tackle and the graduation of Tillman, left both end slots open. A trio of '82 reserves, Willie B. Moore, Chris Jackson and Barrett Coleman, along with converted linebacker Greg Damper, were front runners at spring's end.

Byrd, a 6-4, 240-pound junior, was backed up by Willie Portis, a 268-pound sophomore, at one tackle at the end of the spring, and sophomore squadman Kip Smith 6-4, 242, had a slight edge over junior letterman Fred Baskin, 6-4, 245, at the other tackle slot.

The lightning-quick Baylis, whose 281 tackle participations in three seasons include 10 QB-sacks and five tackles-for-losses, will get good backing from red-shirt freshman Fred Molden.

Kelley, who led the 1981 Eagles in total tackles, and sophomore letterman Chal Pace, ranked 1-2 at one linebacker's post at the end of spring drills, while two-year lettermen Greg Haeusler, a junior, and Rod O'Barr, a senior, ranked 1-2 on the other side.

Haeusler, who moved in when Kelley was injured, and the graduated Carmichael were starters for the last eight games of '82.

Strong safety Brown and cornerback Bruce Miller, both seniors seeking their fourth letters, will give the secondary experienced leadership, along with another three-year letterman, Mike Schiro, listed as the back-up to junior Scott Allen at free safety.

The fourth starter, at the corner opposite Miller, will be sophomore letterman Bobo Harris. A converted running back, James Cooper, backs Miller, while red-shirt freshmen Tim Smith and Collins Hess, are ranked second behind Harris and Brown, respectively.

A bevy of aspiring punters chased after Thompson's old job in the spring. Red-shirt freshman walk-on Tommie McDuffie was ahead at spring's end, followed closely by four-year basketball letterman Larry Boyd. Some newcomers in the fall could change the outlook here, however. Boyd also owns a baseball letter and could bid to become USM's first, three-sport letterman in a number of years.

The Eagles will open their 11-game slate Sept. 3.
